Volume 1 - Chapter Prologue

Take your favorite novel wherever you go
novelepubs.xyz

Gasping out for breath, I was running towards a deserted farm village. Choosing a narrow path, I gave my pursuers the slip and hid inside a hut. My remaining mana is less than 10%, and my divine protection is reaching its limits. I'm really on a tough spot here.

「Oh shit, a monster!」

For me the most powerful enemy in a battle was the crumbling of ones mind and body. Even though I have gathered and lured all those people to a favorable stage ridden with traps that I placed in, it still resulted in a draw. I feel like crying. Though I also manage to inflict a mortal wound... I lost my most important partner and I am heavily wounded. My view is blurred by my tears. There is no way that I'll accept such an ending like this. If Kuna isn't here, then there is no meaning into winning. Finally, for the first time, I just laugh at myself in a place like this! Something like this is the strongest magician!

「I'll start over. Even if it takes tens of years to come here」

This world is just a game. Saving isn't possible, but you can start a new game. It's been 28 days since I first entered this game . I have to return to reality once every several hours. Returning to reality also resets you back to the beginning as follows you'll be greeted with the best ending. 1
The one I'm playing right now is a VR-RPG, IRURANDE.
An action RPG with a good medieval fantasy type monster settings.
But there was an overwhelming difference in comparison with some other games.

「Magic Creation」

As I muttered while leaning on a wall, an overhead window pops in my head. Countless character string was running through the window.

The biggest feature of this game. Programming of magic using an original language.

In order to break down the situation of running low on mana, casting powerful magic which requires low consumption of mana. I've improvise in the usage since it is not ideal for my magic.

「A good method was created. Well, three months ago, I made some improvement in my methods.」

As for the magic development, cooperation of tens of thousands of people has been carried out. It's a single player game, but the sharing of information and development of magic is lively. The chat is possible, and anyone can share the magic if they upload the magic that they developed in the database.

「Yes, it becomes quite easy to use. I have a good sense at tampering this. A developers ... ... Hull 2, I didn't notice that there was such an approach」

I mutter while reading a magic equation of the method.

I call that the method is a component.

For example there are magic that produces Magic Fire Arrows and Magic Fire Blade.

When the respective processes are taken apart, this would be to break down each process.

Fire Arrow,

- 1). A flame is produced.
- 2). The shape of an arrow is formed.
- 3). I release it from my hand.

Fire Blade,

- 1). A flame is produced.
- 2). The shape of a sword is formed.
- 3). Lock the shape of the sword into a fixed form.

A Fire Arrow and Fire Blade. Both has the same process in the first part, then components for the second part splits into different process. Having a common process makes it easier to make new magic in the future.

Most of the commonly used Methods are developed by players is registered in the database. According to the data, approximately 90% of the auto-aim magic uses the aiming system method.

「Yes, this can still be use. This combination is right up my alley」

As the magic I registered in the database was shown in an open source (I published the magic process that I created) state, it's a good thing that many different player improved it. The magic keeps being refined with repetition of usage. Even if saying this is going too far, I don't write my own magic method from the beginning. I can make my original magic methods without limitations by combining different existing magic methods. In which case lacks real creativity.

「It's coding afterwards」

I played with the improvised original magic made of the combination of other method. The general purpose of the methods are obtained. But due to the waste by all means possible being scraped off, I can make a specialized new magic. The dimension of the performance levels up with this. The magic which produce overwhelming destruction with a low mana consumption as planned has been completed.

「So this is where you've been running to, you traitor!! Look at what you did to this world. Just for the sake of one woman... You..!!」

The group of the enemy equip with silver mail breaks in the hut. Their numbers count to twenty enemies. It is the knights brigade which came here to hunt me who was weakened. Although there isn't a First-Class in their numbers, all of them at most is all Rank 3. I was smiling, covered by my hands that was held in front.

「Kuna is all the world to me. 【Spatial Disruption】 」

I used the previously completed magic carelessly. The magic equation executes inside my head and starts the operation, to access the laws of this world. The rule that dominated the physical phenomenon was temporarily approved by the world, and magic execute it. I release space itself in a forced distortion. The outbreak of energy generated by the mending of the space-time occurs, everything was blown away on the aftermath. My view was immediately dyed snow-white.

「Yes, this can be used. The problem is that it can't be controlled to the right moderation. Still the destructive power for consuming low mana is noteworthy. Without a doubt this will be a hit」

The enemies disappear without a trace, and it even left a deep crater on the ground. Far from it, what disappeared was worth two building size land.
Then in my mind an audible sound of an alarm could be heard.
My time here is at its limit.... This is a warning of a forced log-out.
I silently closed my eyes and the menu screen popped out.
There are only three selectable options here.

- A). Log-out
- B). Access Database
- C). Communications

There was neither status, equip, nor a party option on the window screen.
There aren't many places like this game on the action RPG genre.
Something like Level exists.
However, it's impossible to save. You bleed when injured and you can feel pain. The old age undermines the body. And it's the end if you die once.
You can eat meals like in reality, and sex is possible 3
The reality that magic is usable, if I have to say. Such a world it was.
I pushed the log-out option and exit this world.

I woke up.
I got up from the VR machine that looks similar to a coffin.
A VR machine is the machine which gives the five senses to be linked with a PC directly and enter into PC's virtual reality.
At present, one unit is installed in each and every home. I looked up to check the time.

「11:59. Last-minute as usual? Though without the time regulation, I'll dive in much longer」

The VR-RPG, IRURANDE is a game that have accelerated time that differs with the real world's time.
One hour in the real world equals to spending a week in-game.

However, a protection is applied to the game itself, we can only play for four hours from 20:00 ~ 24:00.

「I'll go back earlier from the beginning next time, this time I'll make Kuna Happy, even though making you smile is hopeless.」

Well I have already played IRURANDE every day for six years nonstop, spending a gameplay time of 168yrs on the other side. I already experienced death several times along the way, and starting again from square one.

「I wish i have the same body in this world like on the other side」

Life in IRURANDE is easier to succeed unlike in reality. Unlike when I was in the real world, I was born as a talented genius homunculus. In IRURANDE world standard, with only two of the player-made magic that have advanced for a couple of hundred years, people are already set for a successful life.

Thanks to that, players thinking that I seriously want to play throughout life in the world of IRURANDE does not decrease.

When I was thinking of such things, a system sound came from the VR machine. A window screen popped in the air. As to what was displayed there .....

「IRURANDE、 Notice of termination of service?」

My face grew pale while clenching my fist.

I want IRURANDE to continue. I., I want to start again and help Kuna!

「No way in hell, I can't return to IRURANDE! I won't accept such ending!!」

Don't take my world and Kuna away from me. I cried desperately.

A system sound from the VR machines, and a window screen popped once more.

【If you accept these two conditions, you'll be invited in a new game state in IRURANDE. The conditions are.....】

I read it out loud word by word slowly.

- 【1). The time restriction disappear, once you enter there is no going back home
2). A New Game does not exist. Once you die you'll be forcibly logged out】

My smile turned into a huge grin.

Bring it on let's do this. I turn toward it to seize my good fortune. Together with Kuna.

【Select a choice.

1). Go to IRURANDE.

2). Stay in this world.

But I must warn you. From this point onward will be reality. It won't be a game anymore】

Without any hesitation “1). Go to IRURANDE.” was chosen.

【I see. It's not a game anymore. I'm looking forward to the “real” IRURANDE. My Hero-kun】

And my consciousness became distant.

Cheat Majutsu de Unmei wo Nejifuseru - Volume 1 - Chapter 1

My presence is gradually getting farther and farther away. My soul feels like it escaped out of me.

Although I'm not using the VR machine, I'm feeling this usual sensation of using it.

I slowly come to my senses and gently woke up.

Seeing a snow-white room around me was quite unpleasant. This is the sixth time that I've seen this room. The starting point of IRURANDE.

I was inside a huge transparent cylinder type container. A lukewarm liquid fills the container making my skin transmit a slimy sensation.

「How do you do, drifting soul. I am in a sense what you call God!」

A girl with characteristics of having pink hair and a genderless face, a familiar face I've always saw within the game's starting-point.

「Do you understand what I'm saying? Just in case I'll bestow you the language and common sense of this world. Come, let me hear your voice, your first cry in this world.」

From deep within the self-proclaimed God was looking very happy.

I opened my mouth. The liquid started to flow inside my mouth but strangely I was still able to breathe.

「Hello,world」 1

It was my unbreakable rule to always say this in the beginning. I waited for the reply with anticipation.

God as always, blessed your new life and answered.

「You're always like that, right? sometimes it's good to change and try something different.」

However, God said a totally different line unlike from the game was outside his expectation.

「Fufufu, surprised? Until now, was just a game. But, it's different from this point onward. Well it's time for you to wake up and see reality. The new life that you yourself has chosen.」

The container started to cracked then it broke, and I was thrown out together with the liquid filling it.

◇ ◇ ◇

「Err, should I call you Souji? Or is it better if I call you by your in-game name “Cland” that you usually use?」 2

Souji is my real name. Cland is my game character name.

「Souji is fine for me. But, I want to sever the uses of my former real life and anything related.」

「O~K! I understand」

“Memo~♪ Memo~♪” while saying this God writes my name on the parchment with a quill pen.

「Now, I want to hear something from you?」

「First of all, I want to know if it's true that this is not a game anymore as you say.」

「Yup, it's true. It's not just a game anymore. If I'm gonna put it in you own words then it's a different world perhaps?」

「I see...」

「Now I understand.」

「After all, without the use of any VR machine I was sent to this world. Also, I want to believe it's true.」

And I don't have problems with it, cause in this way I was able to come to IRURANDE.

「Hmm... I understand. In addition, there is only four minutes and thirty seconds left, I usually answer within that time.」

「So that's it. It's the time limit.」

「There are limitations on how a God can meddle on human lives and how much power we can use. I actually used a lot of my power just to bring you here. ...Four minutes and ten seconds left... I actually used up my dormant power as well.」

As if that was nothing at all, God was laughing cheerfully,
If we're running out of time then I'll squeeze all my questions.

「First, God said that this was reality. Then if so, what was the IRURANDE that I was loggin-in so far?」

「That was a game. A simulation of this world that I created using my power. With that game, you have experienced this world's future. Because I'm the Goddess of fate and future. I'm quite good at this kind of things if I say so.」

Strangely, I was quite convinced by that.
IRURANDE was obviously overwhelming.

「For what reasons, was that game made?」

「Because a hero was necessary to save this world.」

「I don't get what you meant by that」

「My, my, please calm down. Should I talk in order?」

With those lukewarm eyes directed at me, looks like God want to say pay more attention.
There's no helping it.

「There is a rule which states that Gods cannot meddle with the world. I cannot make a hero myself. Therefore, first I made a body that has potential to be a hero. That was the soulless homunculus. Because it's a taboo to create a soul, I first made the flesh. I use all my power to its limit to make the best homunculus and incubated it for six good old years.」

God with a “Peta~♪Peta~♪Peta~♪” patted the Homunculus=Me, seems to like it very much. 3

「Isn't it strange. As I'm already used to the game I've already known, this homunculus was never strong to begin with. If this doesn't grow as planned I will be defeated by those hoodlums in that side.」

「Um, yeah. Because originally I cannot make something that would deviate from a human being. If it's only a human being with a strong vessel, that I can make. 4But, there will be no meaning in doing that. That's why, I disregard absolute strength and focused on the qualities to its limit. With that the chance of becoming a hero rises」

「Certainly, this homunculus is overflowing with talent.」

「Right?~♪ But I didn't expect the next problem to be possible. Unless this child grows well, it can't utilized the power within itself. Talent is just talent. I was troubled as what to do after inserting you soul into this child. 」

I understand. When IRURANDE was still just a game there was almost 200,000 players, even using the homunculus to the limit there where some who was not able to succeed.

「So that is why, that game is like that.」

I have just a single hypotheses on this.

「Maybe, it is like you think it is. Finding the best soul in the game and using it. Only by your worlds logic was this a game, Undertaking selective test of hundred of thousands of players without a sence of incongruity. I disguised this to be just like your fantasy game and let you experience a simulation of this world. And among those people, it was only you who could use the homunculus to it's best. That's why I called out to you.」

Such a magnificent speech.

After disguising itself as a game to create a homunculus with the best quality and to look for an appropriate soul, then letting you experience that's world's future and finally selecting the best soul from hundred of thousands of players and pulls it toward their world.

「That was an interesting by-product. The magic you created. It's took three hundred years in order to rise up to the same rank as the standard on this world. It will surely be a help to you 5 When it was still a game, advice from a great magician of this world was heard and information exchange created the structure of the magic development. My choice was spot on.」

「Magic huh, but I can't access the database anymore.」

If it was the usual I'll open the menu and access the database to download those magics but I can't anymore.

The Virtual Development Enviroment for the magic creation manifest inside my mind, but I can't gather any data.

At this rate the innumerable magic that was created and compiled by different players won't be available.

「Don't worry, all the exchanged information and registered magic in the database are all inside you.」

“Ton~♪Ton~♪To~♪” God was tapping my head.

「Aahhhhh」

One after another, information flooded into my head.

The magic that all the players from the game developed and the Hints-and-Tips accumulated. And all the information from the real world and information registered in the game rushed to my head.

「If my body is organizing the information, then at least give me an index.」 6

God sipped her tea while ignoring the me who was suffering with information intoxication.

I force the information down with all my power. And she still didn't listen.

「This is my game experience, am I right?」

「Well you can say that is correct, and at the same time it's also wrong. This is the calculated result of taking all the information of this world expanding to its end. 7 Naturally, things may be slightly off.」

「In the end, Why is a hero necessary? What actions should I take.」

「The end is coming, thus the need for a hero. I can't say what's gonna happen in the end. Meddling with the system is off-limits to us Gods. In the game you experienced, "The End" was not emulated. So I can't say what you should do. This is the limit on what can a God meddle to. I want you to be stronger than anyone else. That's the only way.」

When God finished talking I stood up.

「It's about time. I'm going to take my rest. I hope that you may find happiness in this world. In a sense it's because you're my son. And, the money is in the usual place. Good night.」

And she kissed my cheek, and with a smile.... and disappeared.

「Saying such selfish thing and in the end she just disappear.」

I stroke my cheek. The sensation of her lips still remains.

I became motivated.

To the body with the best talent, crystallization of the wisdom of hundreds of thousands of people from the real world was inside.

Surely, even when the "End" comes, I'll be able to survive.

Volume 1 - Chapter 2

I left the room after God disappeared.

Then I enter the bedroom and look for some change of clothes on the shelf. It's not suitable to be naked forever.

In the game period the homunculus was made by an alchemist who was the self-proclaimed God. As soon as I wake up, I was given the status of being the alchemist's disciple and some money, then was told to go on a journey.

I lived without any sense of incongruity, under the alchemist's reason that I was human. It was a great achievement to create a human being with man's own hands not to mention that it was accomplished for the first time and was a huge success.

Because I already repeated this many times, I know where the alchemist placed the gold.

「Ok, there's the safe.」

I removed the huge safe with an armful from the shelf.

Then I touched it and hammered a wavelength of my mana.

The lock on this safe is a mana perception type. An Alchemist always hit it with his/her wavelength to unlock it.

I remembered that wavelength at that time.

With a normal human body they cannot convert mana into a wavelength, but a homunculus can convert it within their body.

A hard click sounds and unlocking was done.

「Yoshi yoshi, as expected there is a large sum of money like in a bank, this will suffice if it is only with this though.」

There was bundles of banknotes in the safe.

The paper currency system was introduced in this world several years ago.

The amount of money that was inside was 300,000 Val.

Because one bread cost 200 Val, there was not much difference in the monetary value compared to with Japanese Yen. About a month's worth of money is enough to live.

And, one more. It will probably become a steady catalysts I guess. Approximately 10 kg of Mithril ..... magic silver was put away.

「How lucky. To keep such a think like this.」

I'll start searching for a method on how to process Mithril from my memory.

「【Magic Silver Refining: Ring】」

The brain runs the Magic Equation, and the magic executes it.

The Mithril turn into a liquid state from its solid state, and it coiled around my upper arms to my hands and from my thigh to my legs.

Furthermore it formed into rings before turning back into its solid state.

When the specific wavelength is inserted, the magic silver can be changed into different forms while in its liquid state.

「【Magic Silver Refining: First Mode・Lance Piercer】」

And again it executes the magic. The ring in both arms change into liquid state and gathered into my palm, it formed a 1m 50cm length spear with a double-edged knife at its end.

I did a light demonstration with the spear.

Because for decades my main weapon was a spear, I was versed in using it. But the reaction and movement is somewhat dull, and my present body has a sense of incongruity. As I was satisfied to move my body briefly, I returned the magic silver to its original ring form.

It will not be much of a help if it's always in its spear form, it will just be a hindrance.

In addition, I can bring it to areas which restrict carrying weapons, a secondary effect is comfortability as the load is equally distributed on both my hands and feet.

My main armament usually possessed it this form.

「Now, what's next.」

I have three options. There are several cities in this country called Colline 1 that I am currently in. It's important to set my destination.

If I aim to be successful as a merchant, then I should head towards a port on south of the town blooming in economy.

If I want to have a secured and stable life, I should aim at the highly guarded place The Fort City of the Imperial Capital where the King resides.

And lastly.....

「If I want to seek strength more than anyone. Sealed City Erin. There wont be any place better than that.」

The City is full of vigor, more like a City of dreams compared to others, also it's more chaotic and compared to the other Cities death overflows here.

I decided my destination to be that place, I found a sturdy bag for traveling in the house. Then I left the house after packing extra change of clothes, and three days worth of food and water.

If it's still the same like in the game, there will be a convenient event waiting for me at the Sealed City three days from now. ....Most of all Kuna should be there.

◇ ◇ ◇

I ran at full speed while boosting my physical ability with magic.

The animal trail is unmaintained.

Because the alchemist's house is secluded in a remote place, naturally no one will maintain it.

It's quite difficult to run on it, but I coped by applying the Mithril in hand to the sole of my shoes thinly.

By doing that, I can ignore the small pieces twigs and stones.

My current speed had reached approximately 40km/ph. This is my current limit.

I'll arrive in approximately five hours if I run aiming for the Seal City.

It's necessary to squeeze an hour break after two hours of running when considering the mana reduction. I've arrived eight hours later.

Fotunately I don't need to camp out as I was summoned into this world at mornings time.

「This way didn't changed a bit from my memory.」

I aimed for the Sealed City trice in my life.

Thanks to that I remember the way pretty well. Even if I somewhat forgot the way, I got a map that was mapped by many players in my mind so no worries there.

I put strength into my legs.

◇ ◇ ◇

Once again I set off after the break.

Thanks to the City being close, the road condition was well maintained and my speed rose up as it was easier to run.

The bushes in the forest shook.
I quickly halted my pace and hid behind the tree.
Approximately 2m from here, a huge deer came out of the bushes.
However it stood with its two hind legs and its hands was holding a club.

「I'm lucky that demons isn't seen on any place other than the Sealed City.」 2

In IRURANDE demons exists.
But with the exception of the Sealed City, it rarely appear.
Simply put, It's thanks to the Sealed City that this happens.
I climb up the tree.
For now if I'm found out by that deer monster I'll be instantly killed.
That guy is abilities is placed on top of a Rank 1 monster.
In the few game elements on IRURANDE there is a thing called Ranks. Ranks are largely divided into six grades, difference in ranks will also mean difference in absolute strength.
If there's a difference in rankings then I can't win unless some miracle happens.
Even if on the same rank, it depends on how things will go.

「Nbou」 3

I raised a foolish voice, the deer monster who walks with its two hind legs where shaking it's neck from side to side.
It seems that it's looking for a prey.
There's a difference between animals and demons, this guys don't need food to live. But preying on creatures containing mana will make them stronger.
Possibly this guy caught a scent of my mana and came out of those bushes.
Unfortunately for him I erased my presence of mana, causing it to lose sight of me.

「【Magic Silver Refining: Third Mode・Penetrator Bow】」

I executed the magic.
I poured mana to the Mithril on hand, eliminating any leaks, an advance technique that executes the magic while erasing the presence of mana.
The ring attached to my right arm changed to a bow, and the arrow was formed from the left arm.
Following the etiquette of western-style archery, I ready the bow and posed myself.

「【Auto Aim Shot】」

I executed a new magic.

This completed my own body, it's a magic that doesn't leak out.

Visual info and the bow info, and with this information I felt the wind from my skin. I operated them and estimated the trajectory of the shot. When automatic, it will move the body based on the estimation and when the bow is fired, it will make the shot accurate towards the threat.

My gaze is concentrated on the eye of that guy. By doing so my targeted aim is decided.

The distance with the deer monster is roughly 10m. It's in my line of fire.

I release the silver arrow.

「GYAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA」

The arrow penetrated through that guy's eye.

To any ordinary animal this will be an instant death.

Despite that, this guy is howling with anger and rampaging around.

「【Auto Aim Shot】」

The second arrow was released.

Because my line of fire won't reach the eyes, I aimed at the neck's soft scruff this time.

Hit confirmed. However, the arrow simply damaged the skin and it made a hard sound then fell right into the ground.

For a soft vital part, it shouldn't be like this..... With a neck muscle like this, other than the eyes, aiming at the other parts might result the same outcome.

Moreover, the status of this guy is different.

「NGOOOOOOOOO!!!」

It found me.

The deer monster charged with full strength at the tree that I was in.

It crashed on to the tree without decreasing it's momentum, with a diameter of 1m the large tree snapped.

I jumped off at the last-minute right before the deer monster hit the tree.

The broken tree flung against the ground, a thunderous roar sounds and clouds of dust rolls up.

Meanwhile the deer monster plunged in.

「You're pretty persistent! 【Magic Silver Training: Forth Mode • Roaring Hammer】」

The Mithril on my arms alone is not enough so the silver rings on my thigh was also used. I refined a huge hammer.

Originally if the weapon was swung in a huge arc, it doesn't necessarily mean that it will hit the demon.

But this guy with such fatal injury has a blunt movement and is slowed down by its rage. Well it is only thinking of smashing me with its club.

「NGYAAAO!!」

I halted my movement.

The enemy is coming from the other side. I don't need to move.

Then the deer monster and I intersect.

With a side step I dodge the club that was swung down on a hairs breath, at the same time I raised the hammer using the force of diagonally twisting my body from the bottom, I hammered the arrowhead that was stuck on this guys eyes.

The arrow penetrated it's brain, the monster collapsed and breathes its last.

I didn't go unscratched though. The club this guy swung down had crushed a rock and the small fragments pierced me.

But no bleeding occurred.

From the wounds a shining blue particles was leaking.

「So it's like this」

I'm very satisfied to take down a monster equivalent to a Rank 1 at such an early stage.

I started dismantling the deer monster after confirming that my wounds are all healed.

In this world, there are two elements similar to the game.

One is Divine Protection.

In gaming terms it's similar to HP.

When I suffered an injury the wound was wrapped by a blue light and the wound is cured as long as there a HP. However Divine Protection will decrease every time a wound is healed, when it is completely decreased to zero it will lose it's effect and when new injuries are sustained the wounds will now bleed. Divine Protection will recover as time pass. As for items that restores Divine Protection when consumed, such convenient magic does not exist.

The other is Rank. In gaming terms it's the level.

「【Magic Silver Refining: Fifth Form • Avarice Dagger】」

The knife for dismantling was stabbed to the location of the deer monster's heart. The blade sliced well onto the dead demon. It's not like this guy was physically hard, what made it though is because of the miasma strengthening it's body. It will lose all miasma when it dies.

I took out a blue fist-sized crystal in the heart.

This is the core of this guy. A magic stone.

It can make the power rank up by consuming it by force.

In doing so, it's rank increase.

As the magic stone is eaten, it will become stronger, particularly there is the point where perspective of strength changes, that is called a Rank.

As for the highest confirmed rank in this world, the highest was Rank 6. There is only one that has this rank in the world. I was the second one who became Rank 6 in the game, but I haven't heard any rumors of other players attaining Rank 6.

「I want to eat this at once to get stronger, but if I eat this I'll die.」

The biggest trap in this magic stone is set up.

As you consume the power, you'll also consume the miasma. In other words, if a magic stone is not compatible to the bodies capacity is eaten, before becoming stronger, you will die by the miasma of the magic stone.

With the strength of this magic stone, in my current state it will be an instant death. It will be more productive to eat this after I consume weak magic stones and improve my abilities.

....However, there's a loophole here. Players have found a method to cope with it in this world in approximately two years of time. But for my current physical state, it's impossible. After I recover my stamina, I'll deplete it again.

「Well, let get to it」

In the end I put the deer monster's magic stone in my bag and decided to leave. I'll challenge the magic stone slowly after arriving to the Sealed City.

Volume 1 - Chapter 3

I kept running since then, somehow I was able to arrived at the Sealed City while the sun is still up high the sky.

I'm always become speechless whenever I see the bizarre figure of the Sealed City, even if how many times I've seen it.

A castle wall with height of 10m and thickness of 3m surrounds the whole City.

That is not prepared for invading foreign enemies nor prepared to contain something inside.

「I'm tired as expected. As for the admission fee, 100,000 Val should be enough.」

If a person doesn't have neither a citizenship or an entry pass, they have to play 100,000 Val at the gate to pass.

You can apply for an entry pass valid for a month by paying a price.

I was able to get in the line when I reached the gate.

Here is the world's most chaotic district. It's dangerous and risky but both money and people gather up here. It's to the extent that it is not an exaggeration even if I say that there is nothing in this district that would not gather here.

For example, some holds slaves as a commodity here.

There is a cage besides me that held slaves that's hugging their knees while sitting with dead eyes.

I would like to help them. But how would I do that? I can't take the responsibilities for their life. It's impossible for the current me, I can't support them no matter what, they can only live their own lives.

「It can't be helped. Being practical is more important.」

The other party is just doing its business. There is no need to be a hindrance to them.

Like that I walked briskly with small steps, I reached the line for the entrance check in front of the gate.

When I suddenly glance at the row of carriages, I saw the slave trader talking with a girl.

I activate my magic cause it piqued my interest.

I used a wind magic that can pick up sounds.

「Ano, Excuse me. To enter this City what should I do desu ka?」

It was a very beautiful girl.

She seems to be in her mid-teens, maybe the same age as me. Her long blond hair shines through the light, and her silky white skin moves attractively. Her features is a little on the gentle side, and this gave me the impression of being an incredibly perfect girl. Although she has thin frame, It's such an erotic sight.

And her best characteristic is those fox ears that has the same color as her hair and that fox tail. It matches her very well.

I held my breath. When It was still in the game, a partner of mine traveled along with me. It was the girl who I failed to save.... It was Kuna.

I came here because of her. But I didn't expect that I'll meet her this early. It was around several years ago in the game IRURANDE when I first met her.

「Ah, Ojou-chan. Is this your first time here in the City?」

「Yes, Let alone this town, this is the first time that I went out of the village, I don't know the method on how to enter big cities such as this desu.」

She answered while giving a friendly smile.

Is Kuna crazy? Why did you talk to that Slave Trader even when you're asked a question?

「Are you not together with any other person?」

The slaver trader gives a signal to a carriage by hand, while having a greedy eye. A man was going around to the girl's blind spot, sneaking at her back..

「Yes, I am alone desu. I run away from the village! Because I heard that this city has a worker shortage and there's a lot of work. And I heard that I could live alone here desu.」

「Is that so, well, That's great. A cute girl like Ojou-chan runs away from home all alone, how brave of you to travel to another city.」

「Thank you very much. I'll become full-fledged in this city, I'll triumph over Otou-sama, Anii-sama and the others desu.」

She strongly clutch her fist, and Kuna's eyes was sparkling.

The smile of the slave trader deepens.

That probably will be. As for demi-humans who grows fox ears and tail, only the Firefox tribe has them.

The Firefox tribe is an extremely helpful tribe. They have the ability to heal and charm the heart of those who listens, as mana dwells in their songs. In relation to flame magic attribute for them the magic equation can be build intuitively, it's also innate for them to have the ability to control powerful flame nimbly. And they age slower than humans. Their life span doesn't differ to a humans, but Firefox kept their beautiful and youthful figure until their death. They're the best battle slave and sex slave, and when traded they are very expensive. Furthermore..... There is another of thing which raises their value.

「Then Oji-san will find you some work.」

「Is that true desu ka!? 」

While she was so absorbed in talking with the slave trader, the other person silently creep towards her back.

A cloth was pressed to her mouth and she loses consciousness. The girl was then bound with ropes, they also put a magic interference talisman then load her onto the carriage.

「Ojou-chan, I'll give you the perfect work. Starting tomorrow, it's an excellent work called slave.」

The slave trader and the other person roars with laughter. Because they got a top quality slave in such a place they must be jumping with joy.

Looking around, although they saw it nobody stopped to help.

In this world, law does not exist to anyone stepping out of the city.

She was foolish, that's why she was caught like that.

Usually, my mind will run with such thinking.

But, I've known Kuna. The smiling face and a crying face of Kuna was carved in my mind. Therefore, I won't abandon her. ....Even if, the Kuna that I saw and failed to save in the game and this Kuna that I just met are totally different persons.

This time, I want to find happiness together with her.

I stood up and began to walk.

I stand out in the line again but I didn't care of such things.

I arrive in front of the slave trader's carriage and began to talk.

「Merchant-san. That child is a daughter of my acquaintance. I was asked to watch out for her and came to this city. Will you please release her?」

「Hah? What are you talking about. Can't you stop a false accusation? These child is my goods. I brought it here to sell it in this city」

「I've seen every thing how that child was kidnapped.」

「Then what of it. I'll just say that this good was just supplied here.」

「Then you just admitted that you kidnapped her?」

「Hah? This is outside the city. There are no laws here.」

「Is that so? Ara, then there's no problem then if I robbed you of your goods here?

【Magic Silver Refining: First Mode • Lance Piercer】」

I trusted the silver spear near his neck.

「Yo-you, what are, gu-guards, someone call the guards!!!」 1

The slave trader screams but no one moved to help.

While looking around, the slave trader can only look while I carry off the girl I ignored the guy even if he kept calling for help.

「This child is my benefactor. I can kill you for this child's sake. And to the person hiding at the rear. If you move just another step forward, I'll kill this guy.」

The tip of the spear lightly stabs onto the slave trader's neck, blue particle bleeds instead of blood.

It was evidence that the divine protection is working. But this merchant was a lower grade of Rank 1. If I stab the spear deeper it will use up all the protection and death will surely come.

When he was creeping stealthily, he responded to my warning. The slave trader's companion stopped on his tracks. As for that guy, he is a higher grade of Rank 1. I cannot win if I fight him head on. But with this child's assistance, escape is at least possible.

Everyone's movement stopped, the situation is at a standstill.

It's too quite to the extent of being a pain.

「So now what desu ka! My plan already ruined desu ka!!」

An out-of-place voice was heard.

An angry voice, but surprisingly it was so lovely that it ruined the mood.

「Eto, why did you got up?」

The slave trader jaw dropped with his dumbfounded face.

「That cloth that was draped on me was applied with that medicine right? It won't work on me, the poison's effect is not enough desu yo. Tou-sama made me intake poison in small dosage and kept increasing the dosage in order for me to have resistance to it」

.....Long ago, I have heard such story.

Kuna's Otou-san seems to train his sons and daughters thoroughly that can be considered as Spartan training.

「Then why where you caught just now!」

「Because I can't pay for the entrance fee, I was thinking of being part of the goods in order to enter for free desu yo ne. Then after entering the city I'll give them the slip then run away desu shi. That's why I specially talked to that slave trader desu ka.」

The slave trader's and his companion's mouth opened with a whack.
The hell, that's too extreme.

「Bu-but, how, despite being a Firefox we even put a magic interference talisman.」

「This toy desu ka?」

The Firefox girl's eye shined with redness.
At the same time the talisman was burned all at once.

「So crude desu ne. This talisman type is the one that emits noise to interfere desu, but shutting it up is too easy because the pattern is too simple desu. Also the output is too weak. On the contrary putting too many interfered with each other thus turning everything pointless. The fact that escaping easily is possible, but It's too lame to reverse the order right .」

From the entire body, a red flame burst out flickering.

The flame scatters frizzily, The trader's skin was totally roasted particles of blue light was shed. Perhaps that child can even beat the other one with a higher graded Rank 1.

「Hi-hiii. En-enough, please leave, I was in the wrong.」

While listening to the cries of the trader the of Firefox girl slowly got out of the carriage.

「Jaa, shall we go. The Onii-san over there. Because you ruined my plan then I'll have you take responsibility.」

Was mockingly said by the girl.
Strangely that behavior feels nostalgic.

「Was it unnecessary?」

「It was a first for me being helped by a boy, being a girl myself I'm somewhat happy desu. That's why it wasn't unnecessary desu.」

Kuna wore a smile on her face that wasn't shown much on the game.
As far as I know Kuna was more of a silent and emotionless type. Was a girl that wasn't interested in anyone including me.
Her smile is so irresistible that it made me glad.

「.....That so, then it's all good. Let's continue our talk over there.」

Then the two of us went away from the line.

Volume 1 - Chapter 4

「Now then, is it “nice to meet you” desu ka? I’m Kuna. As you can see I’m a sixteen years old Firefox. I ran away from home so I came to this City.」

Said the girl with the blond fox ears and tail.

「”Nice to meet you” wasn’t wrong. I’m Souji. A human and also sixteen years old, I came to this city for money and power.....and to find a friend that can be beside me through life.」

A surname is not used in this world with the exception for nobles. That’s why I gave my name to Kuna with the exception of my surname.

「Money!? Power!? Such a clear desire on your faithful remark!? Well I don’t hate that kind of people desu yo. ....I’m kind of curious, about what you said to Trader-san being ask by an acquaintance a while ago desu ne? By any chance that you’re here to take me back desu ka!? Did Otou-sama asked you to do that!? Then in that case, I’ll fight to resist. With all my might! I will absolutely not return home!」

Kuna then posed into a lovely fighting stance.

I’m surprised to the difference from the Kuna that I’ve known. As I remembered her, she was like some gloomy doll. ....That’s why, I liked the smile that she rarely shows.

「You’ve mistaken. I made up that excuse in order to rescue you.」

Hearing my answer, Kuna brings her face close to mine and gazed into my eyes.

「Is that true, that Otou-sama’s request is just a lie desu. But it might be a trap.」

Kuna doesn't seem to be convinced while groaning with an "un un" sound.

「Because, When Souji-kun was looking at my face, your face had a look of a very nostalgic frown. You like me desu yo ne?」

Kuna's behavior of tilting one's head to the side with a puzzled look on her face was extremely cute to see.

「I-it's not that I like you or anything.」 1

Unintentionally, I talked in a suspicious way.

Even if I repeated my life and understand it, my mental age is proportional to the bodies age. In a sense I'm interested. That's why, even if I spend my life for a hundred years, the outcome of my reaction will still be the same.

「Ah, Gomennasai. The like I'm referring to is the like to a friend, not the like to a lover desu. Such courtesy, is not for me.」

Kuna was shaking her hands weirdly with a reddened face.

It seems that she was embarrassed by the words she herself had said. When I saw her reacted like that, I myself had calmed down.

「Un, I like you. How to say this, you resembled a friend who I liked very much. I simply can't help to not see you as a stranger.」

And the sense of guilt that I let her die in the simulation was in fact real.

「As I look at your face, all that you have said is the truth desu ne. It would certainly be that a beautiful woman will look just like me.」

Kuna folds her arms and nods with a self-satisfied look while making a "un un" sound.

「Un, a real beauty. Kuna is the same.」

「Uuu, such a smooth talker. But I was serious to what I just said. This person....」

I liked teasing Kuna, but I'm weak when I'm at the receiving end. I immediately blushed.

「Gohon Souji-kun doesn't seem to be a bad person desu ne. I have a favor to ask ari masu. In apology for ruining my plan to enter the city, will you help me earn money? My remaining money is just only 30,000 Val, I'm in a pinch desu.」

「Kuna can earn some by signing. A song from a Firefox will be profitable enough.」

When Firefox sings mana flows within the song. It echoes through the soul, and sways one's heart.

Kuna's voice itself is already attractive the song is also good. If it's her, she'll earn enough money even without relying to the Firefox's mana. On the game period, she will sometimes sing when I ask her.

「I understand. Then I'll just have earn money by signing de ki masu. .... くっ」

Kuna bites her lips. I just felt something troublesome is coming.

「For starters, let's rehearse desu. Please let me hear your impression. ....Tou-sama, Haha-sama, Please permit Kuna to show her shameless form in exchange for money.」

After relaxing her body, Kuna suddenly opens her eyes wide. Then she wore a bright smile and stared singing.

I remember the song Kuna told me once. 8

Even without a music score, it's the music that I've learned from Kuna when I hear her humming it. The music that I've learned, over and over she got angry when I make a mistake.

Various thoughts gushed from my chest from the sound. 9

The song title was, "Asahi no Kuu" (Kuu of the Morning Sun). 10

This is the song Kuna's Chichioya (father) presented to her Hahaoya (mother).

It's was a gentle tune. It conveyed the warmth feeling that was included in it.

「Are? This? Is Tou-sama's music. How nostalgic.」

Kuna's shed tears over her eyes. 11

This reminds me, when I preformed this perfectly for the first time, was she crying at that time?

Before long the music ended. But seems like Kuna still want to hear the music so I looped it one more time, I played it until the performance is completed.

「Seriously, just tell me what is it! Didn't you want me to return home desu ka!」

「Just go home then, go home」

Kuna said so while wiping her eyes that was still reddish.

「.....Not yet, I still can't return just yet.」

「That so, well I won't force you then. Kuna, if it's this music can you sing it?」

Kuna nods, I suddenly held my right hand out and put a thumbs up.

There were several street stalls around the castle wall. In the left line for the entrance, there are people arranged to enjoy a meal in order to kill time.

We line up into the section with two people.

I did not attract customers. At any rate, everyone will be drawn when the song starts. We opened a satchel, I did it so that we can receive “wrapped offering”. 13

There is the culture called the wrapped offering in this world.

I played the flute.

Nobody paid any heed at this stage. There were many minstrel and street performer around.

My flute is at a decent level. There is not even one person intending to stop and listen to it. Kuna's song then starts there.

One by one people stopped on their tracks.

People were gathering from far away.

Kuna's song was overwhelming. When Kuna's voice carried the sorrowful melody, with only that anyone will remember their hometowns.

Happy memories and the gentleness which should have been lost. Just like that everything breaks out.

A Firefox's song has ability to transmit one's feelings around. As for this nostalgic feelings of tenderness came from Kuna.

I as the nearest listener was the happiest for Kuna's song. And I gain some sense of superiority.

Like in the game period, I should be able to spend time together with Kuna.

While I was thinking of such things, I noticed the song had ended.

Lots of applause came from the audience.

Coins and wrapped offering were thrown into the satchel I've left open.

「It's a big success desu ne Souji-kun!」

This was the proof that the audience the merit of Kuna's song. Kuna was being bashful. I returned it with a smile.

「Un, It was a good song Kuna.」

I decided to squeeze out all the words from the heart. Always, I want to listen to this song.

We earned enough money and entered the sealed city safely went into a tavern in order to have a meal.

「Now then, Let's equally divide the money we earned a while ago. Wow! As expected of the sealed city. There are plenty of rich people. We earned 250,000 Val with just the wrapped offerings desu yo♪」

Kuna was cheerfully dividing the rolled bills and coins into two.

One is 25,000 Val. And the other one is 125,000 Val.

「This is Souji-kun's part desu.」

And 125,000 Val was handed to me.

Perhaps, the 100,000 Val that was used in the entrance fee was deducted from Kuna share.

「I refuse. I only helped a little bit, and in the first place all of these were earned by Kuna.」

「That doesn't matter. This is the money that two people earned so this should be equally divided desu.」

「Because I was listening to Kuna's song on a special seat, with that alone was worth all this money. Right now, isn't Kuna already dead broke? Therefore it's important to have some spare changes.」

「But....」

There is an underground labyrinth located in the center of this city.

In the first place monster are being spawn in reaction to the magic of the Negative Energy.....known as Elna. It was given directivity by the human emotion "fear" and materialized it.

If there is an Elna then there sure to be demons. The fact is demons spawns everywhere until 30 years ago. One day it was possible for demons to suddenly spawn inside houses.

But 30 years ago the Elf, Grand Magnus Cyril made a certain invention. It's a Magic Tool that can gather Elna in one place. By collecting the Elna that flooded all over the world, demons stopped spawning in other places other than the vicinity of the device. .....But, there is also cases from which it couldn't finish gathering all the Elma that transformed a demon in some place.

There are eight location where the device are installed. The device in this city is the largest and the remaining seven are substitutes.

「Not really, Cyril isn't that great of a person desu」

「He is a great person. The underground labyrinth is a thing which that person made.」 6
The surroundings around the the device that was continuing to collect Elna was already spawning up with a scary force of demons. And a powerful demon to boot.

That's why the underground labyrinth was made in order to seal that in.

It was also a living labyrinth. It was said to be impossible to use Elna in that way, it was partially made possible with a miraculous technique. They consume Elna underground, and the underground floors increases while the labyrinth becomes complicated. In addition to its labyrinth's changing form, demons tends to live there.

「I know Cyril masu yo. As for the things on Elna gathering device, as for the things on the labyrinth. I know all of it as to the extent of getting tired of it.」

「Is that so. You're well informed. Are you aware of it's story? It seems like that the undermost floor of the underground labyrinth has reached to sixty floors.」

And, as for the underground labyrinth that place is good, as you distance to the Elna gathering device shrinks the density of Elna increase, the demons becomes stronger. Paradoxically speaking as the higher the floor the density of Elna decrease, and demons tends to be weaker.

The weak demons becomes the most suitable game to acquire Magic Stones by adventurers, and the density of Elna decreases by hunting those fellows. The structure is like killing two birds with one stone.

「But there are the problematic points too arimasu yo. First, even if how long people gathering in this seal city hunts the weak demon on the upper floor with effort, the consumption is not catching up with increase in Elna at all, Elna will steadily accumulate if nobody defeats the strong demons born on the lower floors desu ka.」

「You're right. That's why the country desperately gathers adventurers of capture of the underground labyrinth.」

As Kuna said, it shows the saturation of the underground labyrinth now.

The demon who sneaks out the underground labyrinth and appears outside has increased too, and there is also an example where the strong demon who should be on the lower floors appears in the upper floors.

Instead of beating weak demons on the upper floors, it's necessary to beat the stronger demons on the lower floors. So unless we do it, the underground labyrinth gets nearer to it's limits.

「It is profitable desu but because though I don't feel like it, the world will be filled with demons if I don't defeat the demon steadily ii masu kara. An excellent person like me must challenge a labyrinth. Therefore in this case the country must support it desu」

「That's right! But Kuna might not know, in order for you to enter into the underground labyrinth you need to have a license.」

「NAN DESU TO!!」 7

Kuna surprised me by leaning her body forward.

In various ways it is a regrettable child. Didn't do enough preparation.

「How can I take the license desu ka?!」

「If applying normally, because there is a rush of applications now if where lucky then by order we can take the test by waiting next year.」

「No way. I can't wait for a year desu.」

Kuna disappointingly dropped her shoulders. I can't see it with the hat on but her fox ears must have fallen down with a *flat*.

「It's still too early to be depressed. I just said awhile ago that "if we did it normally"」

「Is there some other way desu ka!」

「Of course, however. three day later there is a chance for a 16 years old or younger and less than Rank 1 who is applicable to the condition to be given.」

「I'm all OK desu. By all means, please teach me!」

「Un, we came here for that reason. three days from now there will be an entrance examination for the school in this city, the Velgrande knight school. It is a school with the aim to raise a strong knight, students will get a qualification to enter the underground labyrinth. however until recently only nobles can apply, now the general framework is being prepared」

「That's great desu! But, I don't have enough money for school desu.....」

「You don't have to worry about that. This city in order to defeat the demons support any talented young people. The teaching materials are free of charge and are provided with entrance fee to the school, three meals for dormitory are charged on, the total amount of tuition is free by being a scholarship student among the three top rankers of the new students of the general course.」

「It's still early to be surprised. Upon graduating anyone who reached Rank 3 will have the possibility to be bestowed with a title of honorary noble」

Yes, was my goal.

The status of nobility is very convenient at all time. It's not necessarily required to rule a territory and there are less responsibility cause it's just a honorary noble.

But graduating at Rank 3, the hurdle is too high. I heard that only one student was able to achieved this system in the past five years.

「Amazing! I'll receive it masu. I'll receive it by all means masu!」

「It's good to receive it, but there's the lecture part other than a practical skill, is it all right?」

「Le-lecture!?!」

「Plenty of enthusiastic problem will be given. Kuna doesn't understand the national standard of education here so if we don't do a self-study then it's impossible to pass.」

Yet again Kuna crumbles down.

But stood up after several seconds.

I poked my hand inside my wallet and grabbed all the money my hands could grasp.

「Kuna, my share from the performance, I refuse to received it.」

「Eh? But this is yours desu. With my own money, for three days, I'll hire you as my private tutor onegai shi masu」

「What can you do in just three days?」

「For me three days is sufficient desu」
This girl will surely do it. If she who I know very well, then three days will be enough.
「I understand, I accept it. I'll accept this money.」
「Hai! Onegai shi masu!」 8
I shook hands with Kuna.
「By the way, Kuna」
「Hai, Nan deshoushi?」 9
「When we entered the tavern, you said to split the bill right. But if Kuna paid for her share, you'll be broke in an instant」
「Eto... Sono.... If you could lend me some money, that would be nice.... nante」
「It's my treat. This one I'll lend it to Kuna. Be prepared, because I'll have you return it with interest」 10
At that moment Kuna's face reddens with her mouth open, hugs her own body, and drew some distance.
「Co-could it possibly be that you want me to pay with my body desu ka!? Anii-sama, Haha-sama, the outside world is scary after all. Please permit Kuna to be violated by such brute.....」
「Who the hell said that I'm gonna do that!」
「Eh? You won't desu ka?」
「I won't! Can a possible future classmate do such things! I get lodging in an inn first. Because we will have an all-nighter until taking the exam, single room for two is fine」
「I hope for a different room for the young maiden shi masu」
「Kuna. You're broke... Because we're out of time for the remaining three days, there is no extra time to earn money. I'll handle you're booking fee, Do you wish for another agreement for an expensive room?」
「.....Gomennasai. I would like to have a single room for two onegai shi masu. But let me say this once. Even if you take my body, you couldn't take my heart.」
「If you tease me too much, I might seriously take it.」
I smile wryly.
Kuna noticed that I wasn't really serious and was just kidding.
And with this, I can behave with Kuna for a while.
With this we can advance without a problem. After entering into the school, I can probably build our relationship of the extent that we can challenge to the labyrinth together.

Volume 1 - Chapter 6

「Well then, shall we start studying? Because I'm receiving payment as a tutor then well do this seriously. I'll cut in the mathematical test because if it's Kuna then it will just be common sense and basic knowledge.[1. damn MTL hurdles: “試験の中では数学はクーナなら直感と基礎的な知識でなんとでもなるからカットする。”]It can't be help, well study history of magic.」

To the referral from the tavern, I'm giving lessons to Kuna in the inn we rented.

She was sitting on a chair and her hand on the desk.

Because the two of us was alone she was carelessly exposing her fox ears and tail freely.

Because Kuna already received a rather high-leveled education, we'll focus on her weak-points in order to manage by.

「My magic is good desu yo!」

「I know that. I already saw it first hand when you blew the slave trader's talisman in the carriage. When comparing other Firefox to Kuna who can use magic beautifully, I don't know anyone who can do the same. Magic equation isn't pointless, understanding the system itself is also high because of the degree of perfection」[2. Magic_Equationに無駄がないし、術式自体の理解も高いからこそそのあの完成度の魔術をつかえる” “クーナに間違っているものを丸暗記してもらおう。”]

「Fufun, I'm great, right desu」

She put up a self-satisfied look with her fox ears erected.

Surely, the father who was strict have hammered it in her thoroughly.

「But what is in demand here, in this city magic is probably correct answer. I'll be frank, the magic in this city is unpolished is obsolete..... It's really a mistake. But to this city that's the correct thing. Kuna I'll make you memorize all things wrong here. [3. Help: “卒業時のRank3は、取れて当然って考えか。”] Anyway the instructor won't know the correct answer, even if they try to correct it they won't have an idea who can understand it. Be sure to practice the lecture and surely you'll won't get all the answers in “X”」

「.....How to say this, it's so unreasonable. But after that we can have everything from clothes, a duty and a house, if we can become nobles upon graduating then we have to be patient desu」

Kuna expressed her dissatisfaction with her pouting face.

I know how it feels. Even for a magician like me it's annoying to be matched with a low level companion.

「When reaching Rank 3 upon graduation, it is natural that we get it, as I thought.[4. “Kunaが、すごい、すごいとはしゃいでいる。”] I tell you an interesting story. There are approximately 10,000 labyrinth explorers in this town. But when we break them down, 9,000 people are Rank 1, 700 people are Rank 2, and Rank 3 has only around 300 people. It is this result, including the people who have done it for dozens of years. We must become Rank 3 in three years until graduation. Attaining Rank 3 in three years, less than 0.5 can take those spot」

The inside where Rank 1 occupies ninety percent of whole and the one that are Rank 3 are fearful and unreachable. Blessed with talent, blessed with an excellent companion and luck will usually take a decade.

Because I can do it with one-third of the usual time, it may be said that it is impossible to achieved with a honest method.

The point breaks on counting for Rank 4. As for the apex of Rank 6 only one person was able to obtain it.

「What? There's only 0.5 desu ka? Too easy desu yo. If there are 200 people, you should only overtake the other 199 people desu」

「Confidence is Kuna's strong point.」

Actually, she is a genius, and there are the accumulated training from her home. But we still cannot reach Rank 3 in one year. Rank 3 is a high hurdle.

But the story will be different because fact that I'm here. There is a special trick.

「Therefore shall we start studying. Because we only have 3 days, I'll prepare the past exams. That will probably reaches the point where solve it with ease.」

「Past exams?」

「Un, this is the problems that was given on the exam last year」

「Wow amazing!!」

「It's so. You will solve all of this and also explain it. After solving all of them we'll narrow it down to the things that you've made mistakes on, and those you didn't understand and those I will teach you.」

Kuna's amazing, amazingly in high spirit. [5. LoL he's also a cheat to the exams. ]

In fact, the past exams was a lie. Actually it is the test for this year from the database that various players took. [6. “もし、試験に合格したけど特待生の枠に入れなかった

ら？”]

Many players uploaded it but all of them has the same content.

If God's estimation is not a lie then this will probably be right on the money. We can actually do the test's margin, but there might be something after the admission. To make Kuna take this seriously I didn't say the truth.

「To do this perfectly first is do not fall behind my lectures. In the examination system, the test for the lecture with a score 60% and below is considered disqualified. If you passed that then next is the practical test. With the overall result of the lecture and practical test they will select a candidate. As for the evaluation, the practical skill is regarded as important. But don't be hasty because the result from your lecture test affects the selection of the scholarship students.」

「I understand. Ano, Souji-kun. I beseech you please teach me. If the test was passed, but isn't it to put the limit of the scholarship student?」 [7. “単語の意味や読み方を知らない状態でスワヒリ語の歌詞を一曲分、完璧に脳裏に浮かべろと言われているようなものだ。”]

「Then their only choice is to pay the money from their own pocket. The entrance fee is only just 500,000 Val. As for the tuition for a half year is 300,000 Val. Then there is 240,000 Val for dormitory charge and the food expenses for a half year to teaching materials that costs 100,000 Val. All in all the total amount is 1,140,000 Val.」

Even this is a considerably an upright pricing in the school.

Because there is a support from the country, that's why the price is like that.

「1,140,000 Val!? Such money, absolutely impossible desu. I must absolutely become a scholarship student!」

Kuna clenched her fist tightly.

「Well, I think Kuna will somehow manage it. If you borrow money」

「Will you lend it to a young girl like me desu ka?」

「Un, I can afford up to two million Val. If the payment is delayed, you'll become my slave..... In other words, the debt will make you as collateral, so generously serve me.」

The beautiful Firefox trembled in fear.

50 million Val is trivial if they send it to the slave market by a legal route even if they just estimate it.

Even if the debt has low interest, the margin is 2 million, if the high interest rate debt is enough, she may borrow as much as 10 times the value.

「Me as collateral for the debt..... But I won't have any problem if I can return it, if I were to not pass it, it may be better than than waiting for a year to get my license..... I'm troubled masu」

Kuna is considering a debt seriously. The knight school has reasonably large benefits. If she can enter the underground labyrinth, it's enough to possibly pay for it on monthly basis.

「If Kuna is likely delay paying the debt, then I'll pay you. Therefore even if you failed to pass the scholarship, just get a loan without worries and enroll in it.」

「.....The gentleness is adversely scary. Tou-sama said, Because Kuna is cute, all men that approaches seem to be the bad wolves that will try to eat Kuna.」

「Alright, alright, Because I'm a gentleman should I reach out to your hand to become my lover, then I'll take over the debt and liabilities in accordance to ownership rights」

「That is not alright at all!! Absolutely... I'll absolutely pass the scholarship test! Quickly give me the past exams kudasai!!」

「Understood. I understand it. I got a large amount of money, too. So work properly」

I close my eyes and concentrate on it

I looked into my mind. I choose something in line with a purpose from the magic that hundreds of thousands of players developed.

Furthermore, I took out the wooden board from the bag which I bought on the way to the inn.

「 【Print Creation】 」

I shouted the magic name which is the trigger and executed the magic.

Innumerable magic equation streams down my mind, then operated it to override the physical phenomenon and interfere with the world.

The supersonic wave that I brought about is flung against the cortex, and digs the characterstring of the past exam to appear like a video in the mind.

A minute passed while proceeding with that work. A spectacular questionnaire of the last exam was spread, printing is possible.

Ink is applied there, stamping it on with a petan on the paper, the past test questionnaire is completed instantly.

「Here, Kuna. Once you're done just tell me. Because you'll have another five tests to deal with.」

I took out the next wooden board, I immediately prepared the second one.

「Amazing, how complex, a magic with multiple process, just that makes that magic amazing, it's also looks simple. Such terrible waste. But I don't know any other magician other than Tou-sama who can do such great things.」

Kuna was astonished when she saw my magic.

It is no wonder, my magic was developed by tens of thousands of players who shared it on open source that made the method to several hundred of years more advance.

In the first place the body of homunculus is very advantageous when using magic.

Without making a mistake, the character string of the magic language memorized word by word pops into my as the magic made it's completion. It's easy to utter with my mouth but the hurdle is strangely high.

I uttered it Japanese, the lyrics of the Swahili language's tune on my mind in a state not to know meaning and how to read the word

「Hey, you don't have the time to mind me. We only have three days left.」

Kuna faced the desk and begins to solve the past test questionnaire as soon as I told her to.

「Tou-sama... Kuna will do her best..... I will do my very best.... that's why.....」

I overheard some of Kuna's sleep talking while she sleeps on the side.

Having the fatigue from her long journey and pile it more with her fatigue with studying, She was lying down next to me in a deep sleep.

While watching her mouth I became cautious... Because this child was brought up in such a gentle environment... She should learn that a good-nature'd person is sometimes the most dangerous one.

When I first meet her in the game period, she was a license-less illegal labyrinth explorer. With eyes which have gone wild that seemed to hate everything in the world. A good-nature'd girl that keeps getting deceived, and have many distorted wounds.

We've meet in various ways trying to befriend Kuna. It took me over a year after becoming friends with Kuna to show me her genuine girly side similar to the present Kuna that is right next to me. Hopefully, the current Kuna..... I want the Kuna that was not just God's simulation to find happiness. Yes, I'll make you happy.

「Now then, let's do our best tomorrow. At least, If we pass the knight school, I'll push Kuna towards the Happy route」

It seems painful even now. I patted the head of Kuna who murmured "Tou-sama", and then I also fell asleep.

「Breakfast ♪ Breakfast ♪」

Kuna and I, two people stroll around the market in the morning.

After buying breakfast at a food stall, we return to our room to do a test application two days later. [1. MTL hurdles from the start 屋台で朝食を買ってから、二日後の試験申し込みをして部屋に戻る予定だ。]

There are few open stores in the morning, but a street food stall is inexpensive and has a complete set of good food.

「Still, that was a terrible result. Though most of the mathematics is perfect, the history and magic result are terrible」

「Boo, because I don't know the history of other countries, and the magic problem is in the wrong desu. The problem with an example of an useless method. It's construction is weird, who made that problem in the first place? They wrote a magic equation without understanding it's meaning masu yo!」

「Un, Actually that was right. Basically, the magic research here doesn't completely understand the order of basic. [2. 基本、ここの魔術研究なんて、基本となる命令式の意味すら完全にはわかってない。] Though the researcher understood their field of research, they do it in secret without sharing it to the world. That's why the current magic isn't understood well. When the construction is like this, then they can only do it on such level.」

Still, the common recognition of the effect will have similarities to some degree. There is also the negative effects of the first which is again useless without being shared.

「Aah, I want to rewrite those. Because it irritates me desu yo. When I see a useless method」

「Seriously who in the world is Kuna's Otou-san[3. Formal way to say father] to be able to teach a magic equation?」 [4. A reincarnator with 30 past reincarnation that he can use to fight lol]

「Just my ordinary stubborn Oyaji[5. Informal way to say father] desu yo. One that is a great flirter」 [6. すっごい浮気性の]

「A great flirter?」

「Yes! He has three wives masu[6. WTF?! THREE WIVES?! There is Lucie, Kuu, and... who is the other one!!!!!! Some one hasten the translation of Elf Tensei!!!!] I have five siblings, of the previous mention two of them are my half-sisters from a different mother desu mon.」

「That's troublesome. Then, is Kuna's Kaa-san[7. Mother] unhappy with that?」

「.....They look extremely happy desu. They flirt and sweet talk each other unbecoming for one's age masu. However, there are times when I can't meet Tou-sama[8. If you look at Kuna, Kuna's Haha[10. refer to the one above this] must have been an extremely beautiful person. That man is the worst if he took two more wives, while having such wife.

「Therefore I've decide desu. If I'll get married in the future, I'll marry someone who will only love me.」 [11. Lol Kuna looking at the future... Goodluck...]

「Un, that's good. Kuna should be together with a person who loves you the most」 [12. A BIG FAT LIE!]

Thinking from the bottom of one's heart.

However I also understand the feeling of Kuna's chichioya[13. again this is also father]. A man would like to make a lot of cute girl service him.[14. His true color appeared] ..... It'll depend on one's own feeling after all.

「Kuna.... Just now.... Did you just call me Wallet?」 [18. Yes she just did]

「Fu au, There's no way I'll do that desu yo! Quick now, hurry hurry!」

Kuna pulled me by my hand, I was taken to a soup stall.

I presented a trivia while drinking the soup.
I know it very well because I lived in this world longer than in Japan.

「Good desu ne. If we passed in the Knight school, we'll depart first thing in the morning and eat soup here then go to underground labyrinth desu. As for this, does it feels like a genuine adventurer desu ka?」

「Un, Shall we go together if we pass it? After this」

I hand over to Kuna 10,000 Val.[20. Originally the Author typed Kune instead of Kuna, they made a typo there]

「What's this desu ka?」

「As is expected, it's inconvenient if you don't have money right? The it's better for you to have these」

「I can't accept this, it's to much masen yo!」

「Heー?」

「I only lending it to you. For every interval of ten days, 10% interest is added to the loan, do be careful」

「Rip-off Meanie! That, that's not a great thing at first but in two months the loan will double the price desu ka!」

「If you don't like it, then pass to be a scholarship student, quickly explore the underground labyrinth so you can pay for it」

「I will absolutely pass it. ....to the debt, I wave my tail」 [21. ....このままだと借金のかたに、私の尻尾をもふられます]

「It's extremely healthy」 [22. I agree her ass is wholesome]

「Where are you looking at!? It's the tail desu yo! FOXTAIL-CHAN DESU YO!?!」

While we did such silly talks, we arrived in front of a knight school.
Up to now they seem to be still receiving applications for the entrance examination.

「Uwaa, What an amazing number of people desu ne Souji-kun」

In the application area, an exclusive seat is prepared in the courtyard, 50 people was already lined up.

「Every year they received about five hundred people」

「It's only limited to 16 years old and below desu ka? That's surprising desu. In my hometown there are only thirty children of the same ages」

「They came from various countries in order for their dreams to come true. Something like that」

「By the way there are only three slots for the student scholarship desu, but how many slots are there for the normal enrollees desu ka?」

「If I am not mistaken, the slots for nobles are in the hundred, and fifty for the general enrollees」

「There's more slots for nobles desu ne. Although are much less on the general enrollees」

「In the case of the nobles they already received some degree of training when they were still little, they do buy magic stones with their money so they can easily raise their power. There are many talented people among the nobles and they are also well disciplined and educated. It's normal for the general public to get a license and explore without entering the knight school. Most of the time they can't use magic because they don't know the basics. To make money in this shallow hierarchy they often overstrain themselves, went to deep and die a dog's death.」

「This is social inequality.....」

It is good enough that there's a lecture class and that seems to expect the effect to shake off. [24. help with this line 座学があるのは振るい落としの効果을期待しているらしい。]

The history, magic and arithmetic of this country. If they're not born from a wealthy home then they are incapable of receiving the culture's prosperity. In addition intelligence and knowledge are required to an explorer. If a muscle brain became an explorer then the number of corpses will just increase.

If only the current practical skill have about three times the applicant.

While we begun preparation, the two people ahead already finished with the receptionist and already returned, then whispering voice was heard.

「Hey look at that!」

「Aah, the one from the fallen house?」

「There are rumors here that I've heard, so she really came」

「Despite that she's originally noble, aren't she embarrassed to apply for the general examination? 」

During such talks, the alone girl walks. [25. Potential new harem candidate is here!]
It's origin is probably an enormously good clothes, but it's the appearance have become dirty with mud, and was frayed here and there, and it looks disgraceful.

The suppose-to-be beautiful silver hair lost it's brilliance when no nourishment was taken.
Just a single long sword that hangs on her waist shines.

However phosphorus and haggard the girl looks, that girl elegantly walks.
Such a beautiful girl. This I thought so. Kuna was also a beauty, while she lean on the side of having an aura of being beautiful, that child has the expression of being beautiful.

The exam applicants who was waiting in line naturally make way.

「I'll apply for the general examination itadaku wa. My name is Annelotte Auclaire」

The receptionist's hand trembles.

Auclaire..... I know that name.

Called the Kingdom's Right-hand, The grand noble who gain fame as the sword instructor for the royal families.

.....However, it was in the past. A certain incident happened, now it was the greatest stain in the Kingdom's history, their house was dissolved and the family head was executed.

But, I know it well. The truth was that it was a false accusation, why was it necessary to entrap Auclaire house?

「Arigatou. Good luck on the work.」

「Ye—yes」

When Annelotte, the girl who gave her name thank Miss receptionist, she then began dashing back into the road. The face of Miss receptionist was red. The dignity and charisma of the girl made the receptionist do that.
Annelotte which came next to us suddenly stopped.
And she stared at Kuna's face.

「Princess of Elucie. Why are you in such a place?」

「Yo—you got the wrong person desu yo. A princess? Me? No way, I'm just a commoner It's normal for a Firefox to be beautiful desu. Which I think you have been mistaken with my overflowing dignity masu」

「No, I'm can't be mistaken. I clearly remember the encounter in the royal palace party aru mono.」

「You got the wrong person desu yo. I don't know any Anne desu」

「There are only few allowed to call me Anne」

「.....I correct myself masu. Please ignore my situation here. I am here as just Kuna masu. Please understand my reason」

Kuna with a rare serious face said it with a voice which has dreadfulness.

「You also have your own circumstances」

「For such as Anne, Why is Anne a grand noble in the general application? It's easier to apply on the slots for noble desu yo」

「.....I am not a noble anymore. Our house was dissolved because of a false accusation. We tried to appeal for our innocence but those people don't lend an ears to hear the story of a fallen noble. So I'm here to acquire the title of an Honorary Noble to regain the honor of the Auclaire House」

In short, it's to revive their fallen house.

If she can't get a noble status in some way then any talks will not start.

Upon graduation a title of Honorary Noble will be received if one has reached Rank 3. She came here for that purpose.

「Anne. I'm giving you an advise as your friend masu. It's absurd to be bound by your house desu yo. Forget about your house, think only of one's own happiness is worthwhile.」

Kuna told something like a self-mockery. [26. again the author made a typo and type Kune instead of Kuna so I changed it]

「Certainly, what you've said is correct. But I won't give up. Because Auclaire is me itself.」

She was exhausted, still she shown a smile that was full of pride.
I honestly thought that was beautiful.

「So Anne too aims for the scholarship student slot desu ka?」

「That is correct. At present I am broke, which is only that. But even if I lose both money and status, I still have this sword with me!」

The long sword that was hanging on her lower back was suddenly unsheathed. The blade of the long sword was dyed with a snow-white color. Mana also slightly leaks from it, I can tell that the long sword was a Demon Sword .....It felt nostalgic. There was a time when I carried a sword I cherished with me.

It was a wonderful sword. But that sword wasn't just wonderful. She pulled the sword and entered a stance. I could perceive her ability with just those movements.

Her manner of speaking doesn't hint her ability with the sword. Many years of trainings piles up to be able to manage such skills. For her who lost everything, this is the only support that she have left.

「I'm aiming for the student scholarship too masu. Anne, this is a match desu. 」

「I will not be defeated. But both of us can enter because the slot limit for the student scholarship is for three persons」

「Eeehh...」

Leaving me out alone, the two started a sport competition[28. what was written was スポコン if I'm incorrect do tell me].

Anne turned her back at us while waving her hands.

We looked at her back as she pass us by.

And as if the strings holding her together snapped she suddenly collapsed.

「ANNE!!」

Kuna's voice that was worried for her friend resounded through the field.

Volume 1 - Chapter 9

「Uu—n. I think this is a good place to stop. Time for a break desu」

Kuna was walking along with me and Anne.

She was until now, in order to solve the question from yesterday, was studying the reference book that I made. [1. 彼女は今まで、昨日間違えた過去問を解くために、俺が作成した参考書を使って勉強していた。] As you look into her face, you would get it.

Annelotte has finished just eating the second serving.

「It is truly delicious. For nursing me to health, for giving me accommodations in this inn, for every single thing you have done for me I thank you with all my heart」

Annelotte lowered her head.

I though she would be difficult to handle because she was a former noble, but it seems that she has a extremely gentle nature.

「No need to thank me. I'm getting paid by Kuna to examine you as a doctor. Also the money used for your loggings, for the porridge you ate, and for the clothes that you changed are all charged to Kuna. Your gratitude should be told to Kuna herself」

「Is that true Kuna?」

「It's true desu yo. This much generosity is nothing because it's for the sake of a friend desu」

「I'm paying for everything in advance by her debt. If she can't return the money to me, she promised to wag her tail for me」

When I jokingly said that, Kuna's cheek puffed out and Anne's jaw dropped.

「Souji-kun, I'll absolutely return it immediately! Because I won't let you do as you like with my tail! ...But, for helping Anne you have my gratitude masu. Thank you」

For some reason, Annelotte face was colored deep blue and was at loss for words.

She turned pale and trembled then Anne slowly began to talk while trembling.

「A Firefox's tail.... The fact that your condition is to shake it to you.... What a brute!」
[2. If you have forgotten, Firefox treat their tails as equally erotic to the breast and the ass]

「Eh? It's just a tail」

I was surprised toward the Annelotte's exaggerated reaction.

「Souji. May you perhaps have no knowledge of it? To the significance of a Firefox's tail?」

I shake my head sideways.[3. Souji-kun, ignorance is a bliss]

「To a Firefox, their tail is the most important thing being just second to their life. The only one that can touch their tails are their family and their spouse. To wag it's tail to it's partner means that they are vowing absolute obedience to them」

「That's right desu yo. Our tail is life itself desu.[4. So,

“<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EffNUhaLqvQ>” [Touch fluffy tail!] At some point, Until my destined partner can touch my fluffy tail, I won’t let anyone lay their hands on it」 [5. Err... Kuna-chan, he is already in front of you..]

Kuna turns her ass toward my direction showing it off and waved her tail buzzingly.[6. Kuna.... Just stop raising more flags!]

I became annoyed a little bit, so I slowly stretched my hand, giving a shriek Kuna quickly jumps back while hugging her tail and she glared at me with teary eyes.

I see, so the fact about their tail is life itself is not a lie.

「Kuna, what you currently did was not a good idea. If you show it like that in front of a man’s eyes, anyone will grab it without hesitation」

「Is that so desu ne. I was careless there」

「As if!」

I unintentionally tsukkomi’ed[7. In Japanese comedy, the tsukkomi is the straight man who responds to the antics of the boke] I want to touch that tail like when touching a cute pet animal, don’t be mistaken to my passion.

「My bad, Kuna. Toward my action until now, I didn’t mean it like that. What I really want to do was like a pat in the head, I wouldn’t have known if you didn’t say so」

I became fearful of my past actions.

Certainly, if Kuna cannot return the debt I told her to shake her tail for me, it literally meant to make her my sex slave if she can’t return the debt. I should have known it’s true meaning.

「Eh, is that so desu ka. I was sure that if I wasn’t able to return the debt then you’ll turn me into your bride. I thought that it was a marriage proposal. In order to obtain the cute Kuna, this person was saying such mean things」

「That again!」

Certainly, it’s their rule that only their family or spouse can touch their tail.

However, it’s more dangerous to be referred to as sex slaves.

This reminds me when I met Kuna in the game.

That Kuna wag her tail to me. She often said....

『To I who am dirtied is enough, then you should do as you like. There is nothing anymore to protect. Because there is nothing left, nothing else, everything is gone.』 When I think of it now, it has a heavy meaning. I want to perform a dogeza[8. 土下座 “sitting right on the ground” is an element of Japanese manners by kneeling directly on the ground and bowing to prostrate oneself as touching one’s head to the floor.] in front of Kuna.

「Is that so, it was a misunderstanding. I was already set on taking his life for Kuna’s sake in order to rescue you from the devil’s temptation」

「He is pretty much my benefactor desu shi, Anne please stop thinking of killing Souji-kun as he is also your benefactor for the time being.」

This pair’s train of thought is bizarre that it’s scary.

「You are called Souji am I correct. Kuna’s debt, is this enough to cover it? I think this values to a 100,000 Val, judging from my past experience when I took it out from the mansion」 [9. 屋敷から持ち出した最後の一つ、今までの経験からいうと、十万 Valの価値があると思うわ」]

Anne took a ring out from her washed clothes beside her bed and handed it to me.

「Past experience?」

「Yes, up until the present, I have sold the jewels which I have taken from the mansion to be allotted for my travel expenses This is the only one that remains. Because this was a keepsake from my mother, I didn't sell at any cost. Then I didn't had anything to eat, and eventually collapsed. If I have not collapsed in your presence, then at that time I.... I'm such a huge fool that I'm getting tired of my own self. That's why, I decided to use it here. As my own punishment」

I look at the ring that was given to me. The ring was made of platinum and a blue sapphire was embedded into it. Also the craftsmanship is superb.[10. It must have been made by Yuncchi] I never emphasize on a sapphire's charm, but this one is impressive.

「From Annelotte's experience until now, you're saying this values up to 100,00 Val right. Was the other jewels you took elsewhere inferior to this?」

「No, it has the same quality as this one」

I almost unintentionally uttered an 'Uwa[11. <http://thejadednetwork.com/sfx/search/?keyword=%E3%81%86%E3%82%8F&submitSearch=Search+SFX&x=>] ' This girl.... There a limit on being ignorant.

「I cannot accept this. Its does not worth of it's real value」

「Is that so, appraisers said that these things values up to 100,000 Val」

Anne breathes with a deep sigh.

This ring has her mother's memories on it, I know it's real worth that's why I turned it down.

「On the contrary, it's quite the opposite」

「For a reasonable price, it's real value ranges to 8,000,000 Val. And for the inn and medical expenses, it only cost 50,000 Val. So I can't prepare the remaining 7,950,000 Val even if I take out the charges.」

「Eh? For real? Then the person whom bought these until now?」

「Un, you've been ripped-off. If an ignorant young lady that's in a desperate situation come to me trying to sell this I'll also take full advantage of your weakness」

「.....Awawa, What a fool I am.[12. Awawa shoujo kitta!!] The remaining property my father which he left for me, to waste it just like that.... I want to kill myself...」

She doesn't blame the merchant that deceived her but she herself is the one she blames.

「But you are such a good person. A good-natured person I wonder? If you have kept quiet then you might have gain yourself 8,000,000 Val」

「Because you're a friend of a friend」

「.....Friend?」

Kuna was pointing at herself with a puzzled look.

「Kuna... Your reaction in it's own way, really hurts my feeling. It was enjoyable being together with you」

We were only together for about two days, nevertheless those two days are meaningful.

「Please wait a minute. I just got an idea masu. The debt for when you saved me, the grudge from obstructing me when I was entering the city, the debt for teaching me in my studies, the grudge from the rif-off properties, the grudge from when I can't pay my debt I have to marry you, the debt for helping Anne.... The enjoyment when we're together.[13. 一緒に居る楽しさ。] And also the delicious dishes」

To say your complaint until now.[14. ぶつぶつと今までのことを言う。]

「A friend desu ne. Souji-kun is my friend desu. See it as you like for now on.[15. 以後、

よしなに!」

Kuna presented her hand demanding a hand shake, I held her hands in return.[16. Kuna route Getto!]

「How envious. If I say so」

「...Then shall we also become friends? I kind of fancy Annelotte's personality. In addition you're also Kuna's friend. I want to be friends with you」

「Thank you. You are the first friend I've made since the time I lost the Auclair name. From now on please call me Anne, just like what the people closest to me calls me」
Anne said so with a smile similar to of a child.

Volume 1 - Chapter 10

「Now then, Now that we're friends, about the deal before? Not only Anne but this also concerns Kuna」 [1. 「さて、友達になったことだし取引をしないか？ これはアンネだけじゃなくてクーナにも持ちかけている」]

I talked to Kuna and Anne while smiling.

「Deal desu ka?」

「It's about the deal's contents. Though it is a little scary to be discussing about it the moment when I made friends」

Seems like Anne has a little wariness because of the case with the jewel being rip-off from her.

「Say it clearly. I am a genius. If I do it normally, there is no doubt the first place of scholarship will be mine」

I make an expression that seems to be proud and had finish saying it with full confidence. [2. Now he's just boasting all over...]

「Such great confidence」

「Ignoring this Kuna-chan in the first place, gununununu[3.

」

Both of them is in a state such as half doubt.

「The I'll show my first ability, 【Magic Silver Refining: First Mode・Lance Piercer】」

I start with the usual magic.

The mithril ring attached to my upper arm melts and I changed it into a spear and return to it's solid state.

With the spear, I showed some proud stances.

「I see, I can say that it's worthwhile. Although to the extent of the Magic Equation's workload, with nothing wasted even though it's this many to the point that it's unbelievable. The mana leakage is almost zero. If I may say, the processing speed too is abnormal. I can't think of any other person who can manage magic like this」

When consuming a Magic Stone to raise ones abilities, the mana will also becomes stronger. When ones mana becomes stronger, ones potential also rises that magic with huge mana consumption becomes usable. Furthermore the processing speed after activating the Magic Equation rises.

But the use of magic itself will not improve it you don't improve ones own skill Similar to 【Magic_Silver_Refining】, the magic is complicated but the mana consumption is little, only an elite magician can use it.

「It's an unbelievable magic skill desu. In addition, there are no wasted movement in the spear stances desu. Your magic and taijutsu is still inferior to Otou-sama by two steps, still I can ask after considerable training masu[4. それでもかなりの修練のあとが伺えます]」

「So what kind of person is Kuna's father?」

With a straight face Kuna was scared, it's been said with her honest feelings.

I have trained in this world for 168 years.[5. Just o remind you, Souji is referring to his play time] Yet I was inferior by two steps. Is it a monster that isn't imaginable.[6. Not literally a monster, they are referring to it as a powerful being] If there is such a guy, then it will be the only Rank6 in this world. It can only be the legendary Grand Magnus Cyril who made the underground labyrinth.

Grand Magnus Cyril is abnormal. [7. Of course he is, can you say that an Elf is normal if he can use all his past reincarnation's power and abilities?] He reached Rank 6 in his prime, using all player made magic we can only brought it to a draw that was outside the genuine standard.[8. WTF?! Cyril fought all players who used all player made magic and it just ended in a draw!? Cyril is so OP!!!]

.....ending in a draw is not the right word. As the war of attrition competition began, the appearance of a ominous huge silver dragon that wasn't seen before suddenly release it's breaths that the surrounding topography changed. I suffered some fatal wounds and before I notice it, Cyril disappeared. After that no one have reached 6 Rank.

That's why for this reason. If at that time it's only me and the Rank6, even if before the silver dragon's appeared will I be able to win? That's why rather than only me being the strongest, I want to make the strongest party.

「As you can be seen, nobody can defeat me if it's a practical skill. And there is the past questionnaire that I handed to Kuna」

「Hai, ari masu ne」 [9. Literally, 「Yes, it's here」 ]

「In fact, this is this year's questionnaire. Perhaps 95% of these just might appear. In my honest opinion memorizing this will give a leeway in the lecture part. How I came to get my hands on this is a secret」

「Ca-can't be! Not only that I just learned my mistake from that day, then what did I study for with all my effort!」

「Not all was in vain. It will be absolutely useful, somewhere」

There's no doubt.

It'll be also a preparation when the Knight School starts.

「.....In other words, we know the lecture questions beforehand and in the practical we are second no none. With certainty we'll get the first place. Then what was the deal?」

Anne puts her hand on the chin and mutters.

With such gestures she looks more like a good girl.

「I'll let Kuna and Anne take the remaining two slots. As I said while ago in the lecture, this is the current year's questionnaire, and as for the practical skill, I know what to do so I can possibly instruct you. With the talent of both of you, then it's an easy win.」

Frankly speaking, this is a sly trick.

But I want this two to succeed.

As a friend.... And for the sake of the future.

「What compensation would you ask the for?」

「Absolutely it will be an ecchi thing desu yo」

「Kuna please cease your jokes at a time like this. Maybe this person will not speak of such thing」

「Gomenasai. Souji-kun doesn't have such courage desu yo ne」

Kuna's evaluation of me is that low.[10. You rip what you sow] I'll put a stop to that evaluation someday.[11. いつか、痛い目に合せてやりたいと思ってしまう。]

「Gohon[12. cough] So this will be the content of the deal. When all of us enters the scholarship, I want us three to form a party and challenge the underground labyrinth. Only death awaits if I challenged it solo. When on Knight School it's better to party with fellow students. But I don't like being treated lightly by the upperclassmen[13. 上級生]. And it will be just plain suicide if I challenge it with a classmate[14. 同級生] without any talent. I want two people with talent, who wants to aim at the top with a three-man party.」

Securing talented members, this is the first requirement to success.

After listening to my words, and Kuna and Anne look at each other. Then they laugh.

「Hearing such an obvious thing, what do you think desu ka?」

「Well we all are friends. Isn't it natural for friends to cooperate」

My chest somehow felt warm.

I longed for such exchanges for a long time.

Perhaps I remained playing in IRURANDE of the game era, in order to just experience this kind of feeling.

「Better yet, why don't we form out party here right now. Souji-kun, Anne」

「I think that's a great idea. Let us help each other for here on」

「But isn't it important to have a party name? What shall we do?」

「I'm good with it. Sort of」

「That's no good desu yo! Because it's the first party that I've joined in my whole life desu kara」

「That's true, first is our own symbol..... This is the utmost important thing. How about putting up a something we respectively proud of? How about a name that derived from something?」

「Ah, Anne-chan it's ok desu. We will have a name desu[15. Help with this line 私たちらしい名前になりそうです]」

「I second this. Well then, each of us will tell what they wish for」

I ask myself. What would be my symbol.

「Then, I'll go ahead masu yo. How to say this, The first thing that I'm proud of is my tail desu. Fusafusa[16. bushy] desu yo, mofumofu[17. fluffy] desu yo—. My symbol is my tail that is like my Haha[18. mother]'s tail that's the most beautiful tail in all Elucie desu」
Bringing her tail before her body with a self-satisfied look on her face, like she was saying “how's that!” while Kuna was emphasizing her tail.

「Then for myself are these sword. This sword was entrusted to be by my father, it's a symbol inherited by the people from Auclair house. And It's the soul of my prided swordsmanship that was carved into my body. Therefore, this very sword is my symbol」
Anne raises her sword toward the sky. In her eyes reflects hope.

「Then mine is the entire list of my magic skills. 【Magic Silver Refining : Improvised · Symbol of the Oath】」

I activated my magic, I created an object that looks like a sword with a foxtail entwining around it.

Because it was improvised, there where some place where it was distorted.

「I will become the best magician in the world. Therefore magic itself is my symbol」
To not defeated by anyone. From way back, the pride which in addition supplied the original magic.[18. 昔からずっと、オリジナル魔術を提供する側だったプライド。] The pride which was chosen by this world.[19. この世界に選ばれた自負。] Therefore I decide magic itself a symbol.

「Tail, Sword, and Magic. When simply put together, TailSwordMagic?」

「Let's paraphrase it a little to make it sound more cooler mashou yo」

「That's right. Then, how about saying it like this? Demon Sword Tail[20. the kanji is 魔剣の尻尾]」

「Anne, wait, it's so uncool..... but」

I began to talk while giving a bitter smile.

However, Kuna cuts in before I can finish speaking,

「It's cute desu ne. And it sounds good. I think that it's good masu」

「I plan to say the same thoughts」

「Then this is the birth of the Demon Sword Tail party」

The three of us then laugh.

「First of all, this party's first mission is for all members to become scholarship students, let's aim toward it」

「Desu ne, It's no laughing matter if have we brake-up out party after the examination」

「Only because we have the advantage, we'll surpass it without fail」

「Un, Yes we can do this」

In practical skill, if Kuna and Anne overall succeed it will be scary on the contrary[21. 実技で、Kunaや、Anneに勝てるようなのがごろごろいたら逆に怖い。] We will be called the golden generation[22. Golden generation = elite player with the same ages]

「Aa, please wait a minute. I came up with something good mashita」

Kuna draws something lightly on the paper.

What she drawn was the object while correcting the plain surface, it were improved with her sense. Honestly I thought it was cool. With similar dimension of the sword and tail motif but different from the thing I made.

「Let's make it this, our emblem mashou That is, if possible desu, but....」

「Un, We understand」

Activating 【Magic Silver Refining】 once again.

A portion of Mithril is extracted from the ring, I reproduce the picture that Kuna designed from the paper.

I made it into a necklace through Mithril that I molded into a chain.

「This is the proof of out party」

The emblem was put on Kuna and Anne's neck.

Both of them stroked the emblem with love.

「Well then, playing stops here. Do the lecture thoroughly by the end of the day, I'll measure your practical skills tomorrow」

「Yes, please take good care of me.」

「Aa!, If I think of it calmly, I paid money of a private teacher charge, Anne that's unfair desu」

「Of course it's a debt. I also charge Anne. I have you return the payment properly little by little. The first will be at 10,000 Val」

「Ano, Souji, What is this I wonder?」

「I had it over to Kuna but if there is no money then I'd be troubled. Until we passes in test, I'll note Anne's share of the inn accommodation and meals. That's why carefully treasure that ring. Because that's a keepsake from your mother, am I right?」

「But....」

「Anne said this a while ago. The one who is too obsess about a mother's keepsake while being close to death is foolish. But, I think there is some things which can't be replaced with a life either. Therefore, you should do that and be done with it, then just borrow money from me」 [23. だから、俺に借金をするだけで済むならそうしておけばいい]

「.....I seem to have misunderstood you. You really are a good person」

「Un, but you better not forget it. The medical expenses and the food expenses, with the inn charges is 50,000 Val. The examination questionnaire and my teaching expense is 150,000 Val. With current cash is 10,000 Val. Total that I've lent is 210,000 Val and will increase by 10% by every 10th day. With compound interest」

「Even a good person will withdraw his words. You are a cheapskate..... No, not really. If comparing with the things provided, it's in a conscience price. This is my conclusion. Whichever things I say, you are still a good person」

Anne smiles wryly.

And she shook hands with me in the same way as Kuna did.

「Anne, please be prepared for the evening. Because there is only this bed desu kara. Only this double room is the only thing available in this inn desu」

Because the inn is already fully booked, so they no choice but to sleep together here with three people.

Because of that it's is less expensive than getting a triple room and it's easier for the wallet.

「The same bed, with a man..... So immodest. But, there's no money to get another accommodation, it's inevitable」

「Anne, If he do something strange with the two of us, let's beat him up shi mashou」

「Yeah, shall I cut it off so that strange things could never happens?」

「What!?!」

As is expected, If there's two women and a single man, then my standpoint will weaken.

「More or less, is there a meaning for three people to sleep with a bed for two?」
Just in case, I'll recover my evaluation.

「Exploring the underground labyrinth basically doesn't end by a day trip. A tent is brought in, in order to decrease the baggage it is normal to bring only one even when it's for three people」

The tent is bulky and heavy. The guy who brings two to separate man and woman is a fool.

「Frankly speaking, it will be small. Therefore refusing to sleep together leads to death to the opposite sex without any sleep and had accumulated fatigue. So it's necessary to be accustomed among now before it's too late」

I watch both Kuna and Anne with bored eyes when I emphasized it.

「What seem to be reasonable at a glance, is rather disgusting masu ne. Anne」

「It is so Kuna. If you lay your hands on us while sleeping in the underground labyrinth, I wonder if you can try to sleep outside?」

「You're so cruel!」

It's hard to say, but the eye and the tone of the two of them were laughing.
The while studying through the night, night keeps advancing away.
But I couldn't help being happy when the three of us were studying.

Volume 1 - Chapter 11

 「Finally, the examination day has arrived」

All of us arrived at the knight school.

Since then, they were able to solve a 100% of the lecture problems. And just in case, I gave them a piling mountain of similar problems.

From a short time, Anne and Kuna got used to the thing called studying. Because they have a good memory, they immediately learned the lessons.

As for the practical, It will be all right as they also practiced.

With its nutrition restores, Anne's hair has regained its beautiful luster and her previous haggard state was nowhere to be seen. It was worth cooking dishes with considers its nutritional value. She can now face the practical exam perfectly.

「I'm nervous desu. If I fail here then and became a general passer, I have to borrow money for my school expenses. And making myself as the collateral if I can't return the crazy rate to Souji-kun」

「Yeah, I have to pawn my demon sword just so I could return the money to Souji-kin'yuu-san[1. Literally mean Souji Finance-san]. I won't be able to pay it on the first month of the year if left unattended」

「Those are such a cruel comments」

「「It's because of Souji(-kun) crazy interest rates (desu)!」」 [2. Both were spoken by Kuna and Anne at the same time, Kuna's version just adds the word's in the parenthesis]

As expected of those two friends, their breath are totally in sync.

「I'm not an Oni! Your debt doesn't increase like a snowball. I only receive the interest, and as to not decrease the principal's jump[3. help with this line 元金を減らさないようにしてジャンプさせるし], So instead of the interest you can substitute it for some shameful things. Hey, doing some shameful things once every ten days, the debt will not increase right? there is no money lender as kind as this elsewhere.」

「That's being an Oni enough desu!」

「You, I wonder what were you doing before arriving to this city」

Though I was only joking about it, it's troubling that they taken it seriously.
Even with the crazy interest rates that came from me, I know they can surely return it.
Even if the worst thing happens, aside for the scholarship student, going to the general entrance to the school is also possible. In that case, if I make a lump sum and enroll with it and and be able to dive into the underground labyrinth, with that thinking the three of us can get the money back.

But The 【Demon Sword Tail】 's first mission is for all of us to have the scholarship student entrance. I want to accomplish it somehow or other.

「Hey, look at that. A Great Noble-sama came for the general examination」

「You mean a former right. But it's that was me, I'm be ashamed to even come here」

「Because she's the daughter of a criminal, that's why she has a very thick face.[4. Meaning that she was shameless]」

The examinees who passed by us was talking at our back loud enough to be heard.
Anne's shoulder was trembling.

「It will be alright」

While saying so, I grasped her hands.[5. Souji showing the moves how to woo a girl lol]
It was surprisingly cold.

「It will be alright」

I repeat the same words and put some strength to it.
Then Anne had a surprised expression and looked up to my face.

「Anne should pop out her chest with pride. Don't mind the small fries. Go and aim to the top with us」

Anne's cold hands was filled with warmth.

「Those past remarks, whichever was the truth I know you are a kind-hearted person.
After all you really are a kind-hearted person」

She gave me a smile. With this we now have a peace of mind. We then headed out steps toward the meeting place.

The examination began.
First was the lecture exam.

「Ah! I've already done this problems in the past desu!」

Kuna raised a surprised voice, because the problems I made appeared in the exam. The proctor rushed toward Kuna and dropped a fist onto her head, was scolded and was warned that the next time she speak she will be sent out off the room.

What is this fellow seriously doing. It's to ridiculous to be disqualified like this.

I scan the problems from the beginning to the end.

Only the last part of the exam was a little different but it was within the range of error.

The three of us will certainly get a perfect score. We have the advantage in the lecture part.

I took a glance at Kuna and Anne, both their hands moves without any hesitation. Well then, I'll also do my best.

The lecture exam ended in the morning, We all moved to the prepared waiting room. Because there are many examinees, we were split into eight rooms.

There's a one hour break, we took our lunch and prepare for the afternoon.

They will announce the lecture result first thing in the afternoon, those who got a result of less than 60% was made to leave on the spot. Those who remained will do the practical exam. After combining the results of the lecture and practical exam, the scholarship student will be picked from those who successfully passed.

As usual, Anne attracts hateful attention, She behaved and didn't mind it at all as she was getting used to it.

There was no time to go out so each of us brought our lunchbox. I took responsibility of making lunch so I made a Katsusando6. [https://tabelog.ssl.k-img.com/restaurant/images/Rvw/448/320x320\_rect\_448908.jpg]Pork-cutlet sandwich] Because Anne's physical condition was restored, eating heavy things will be fine.

「This, what is it desu ka? It's very crunchy and juicy, and the sweet and sour sauce may become a habit masu」

「I had a hard time making those. I drained the oil thoroughly and made them crispy so even when they cooled down they'll still be delicious」

Iron is produced in this world, but iron-made products was expensive. They don't have the culture of selling cooking utensils made of iron and frying oil. Therefore deep-fried food should be an unknown taste for these two. In order for it not to become a bad memory for them, I created a katsu[7. Cutlet] with extreme caution. ....Using a Mithril pot.[8. LOL Mithril was used to make a cooking pot, It reminds me of a certain OP Mithril knife wield by a certain perfect bride-like girl from a certain cooking... err.. I mean tourist novel]

It doesn't suck the moisture of the bread[9. Help with this line too “パンのほうにもさまざまな工夫をして水分を吸わないようにし”], so I'm not ashamed to take it out anywhere. I made a delicious Katusando even if it cools down.

「It is really delicious. But warm food is much more tasty desu yo ne」

Kuna summons a small flame, charred the bread and warms the meat.

「Un, this does make it more delicious. hauhau[10. SFX of gobbling food] H-hot!」

hauhau, Kuna stuffs her mouth with a Katusando with great relish while talking.

「Kuna's so sly. Warm up mine too」

「OK desu yo. Anne-chan」

Without any mercy, Anne's Katusando became a Yakikatusando[11. fried cutlet sandwich] too.

「It's true. This one is much more delicious. For the remaining ones, won't you warm them too?」

「Roger desu. I'll steadily warm them masu yo!」

It's certainly is good, however this is more delicious.[12. the former being the warmed katusando and the latter being the cold katusando]

「How is it Souji-kun? Ah, perhaps Souji-kun is sulking because only yours wasn't warmed masu? Don't worry. I'll warm it properly masu yo. There's no way we'll exclude you desu ka, we're a party desu」

Kuna said it with a very big smile.

「Thanks」

I can't tell them. As I yield, the coldness made it's deliciousness useless.[13. Not sure of this line “冷めても美味しい工夫が無駄になって凹んでいたなんて。”]

We finished our lunch a few minutes ago. There is also Kuna's influence, the two of them seems enjoyed their first experience for deep-fried food.

「Kuna. This, don't 『Ah! I've already done this problems in the past desu!』 me! I was really nervous! Depending on the proctor you may have been sent out in one shot」

「Because I was so surprised desu yo! Isn't all problems the same except for the last desu ka?」

「Souji. Did you got us into an illegal route?」

「It's a legal route. I have an acquaintance who is a fortuneteller to prepare it」

I'm not telling any lies here. This is God's calculation result.

「This fortuneteller, it's worthy to be called a monster 」

「Eeh, Tou-sama is much more talented desu」

「Well with that person it's possible」 [14. not sure bout this 「あの人ならそれぐらいできそうね」 ]

「Therefore, what the hell is Kuna's chichioya[15. father]?」

「It's an obstinate, adultery prone, and useless oyaji[16. lit. old man, but sometimes used by children to refer to their fathers] desu」

Because Kuna as well as Anne says so, he must be a genuine monster.[17. Of course Cyril is, he practically fought almost all players on IRURANDE alone and only ended it to a draw]

Next time, I'll ask Kuna to introduce him to me. How should I greet him?[18. Tell Cyril this, “Hello I'm Souji, and I want to mofumofu your daughter's's tail” lol] Should I say that I'm always taken care off by his daughter? ....For some reason an unpleasant feeling crossed my mind.

「We'll announce the test result. When your name is called then step forward, Rinna・Folkbach[19. リンア・フォークルバツハ any suggestion is welcome], John・Shupring[20. suggestions here too ヨハン・シュープリング], .....]

The proctor appeared and the scoring was over, and one by one the examinees name was called.

The proctor is a huge and tall man with a height of 190cm lengthwise aside, It was a trained through body. He gave a overpowering impression, combined with a stern look.

There are only around 60 people in this room because the examinee is divided into eight rooms.

Everyone was impatiently waiting for their names to be called.

Each time a name was called they hold up their fists in triumph, the examinees step forward while running.

「Souji-kun. I want to be called already desu ne」

「Even though we did our best, I'm still nervous. I cannot feel at rest until our name is called」

「It'll be useless, we won't be called」

「「Eh?」」

Kuna and Anne absent-mindedly opens their mouth.

Well, it's very easy to be misunderstood.....

「The above forty-five people!」

It came to an end without our names being called.

The examinees who was called stepped forward with a delightful expression.

While the examinees who remained sitting down with me has a sad expression..... Well, because I know the trick that's why I have a calm expression.

Kuna and Anne has a look that is impossible to describe.

I should have said it from the start[20. Souji being an S again]

「You may return! You're disqualified」

Those who were called are the ones that didn't get the passing mark.

Angry rants were screamed. It was the total opposite a while ago, those who thought they passed broke down and the ones who were sitting before were raising a cheer.

Sometimes I think. That this was done on purpose....

「Now then, those who successfully passed come and follow me. We will now conduct the practical exam」

Then the proctor began to walk.

In the room with 60 people, 45 did not make the cut and was disqualified, only 15 person passed. Probably around 100~150 people advanced toward the practical exam.

「Wait, wait a moment!」

An examinee who didn't made the cut clings on the legs of the proctor.

「My failure is a mistake. Please. I can pay you at any amount without limit, just let me on the practical exam, that's why if it's in there I can show you my true capabilities」

Look's like a bocchan[21. young master] from a wealthy family. When seeing those luxurious clothes and ornament, it's easy to understand.
Desperation can be seen. This school will receives those who is younger than 16 years, but if you failed, a retake isn't possible.

「Kisama[22. KISAMA!!! means You!!!]! Are you bribing me? A knight has the authority to judge lawbreakers like you. I'll arrest you for bribery if you continue any further」

The proctor told it with a cold voice.
All teachers in this school without any exception have the qualification of a knight.
Basically in this city there is no one who suppresses the crimes actively. Only a knight has the authority to suppress the criminal in this mysterious city.
Naturally, if they were bribed openly like the boy presently, they can arrest you.

「Hi-hiiii」

The examinee backs away from the proctor's legs.

「But, isn't it strange, a criminal's child passes, why did I failed?!」

「I don't see anything wrong.」

「After all, that's the child of a criminal. I'm superior to it!」

If viewed from the outside. You have a higher social standing. And the scion of the large merchant Recklerate[23. レックルレーテ, can anyone suggest a better reading for this]

「Then!!」

「But we evaluate the ability here! Any more than this will be an insult to our school, I'll personally behead you boy!」

The examinee was running away to escape for his life.

「Daughter of Auclair. I'm sorry for making you feel unpleasant」

The proctor apologized.

When a tall man takes such an attitude, there is sense of incongruity.

「I-it's ok」

Anne seems to become timid, too.

「And as an apology, I'll give you one advice. You are excellent. Until last year there wasn't any one who got a perfect score on the test here」

The surrounding was buzzing with words.

The problem of here is very difficult. Getting a perfect scores are like a dreams within a dream.

「I welcome talented persons. I don't have any intention to bring any of my personal feeling into this exam and education.... But」

He stops in between his words.

「I personally don't have a good feeling toward you. The fact that what your father did was totally inexcusable. That I cannot forgive. Do expect that majority of the instructor here also thinks the same. Instructors are just humans. Not all of them can be rational as to ignore their feelings. Remember this.[24. originally it was written as "Don't forget this" but I change it] Not to mention that you'll be spending time with immature student, so you can't request for discretion」

「I understand. I came here with that in mind. And.... There are people who I can call my friends. That alone is enough」

「If you have such resolution then it's fine. I want you to tell me just one thing. Is your mother, Lyneklan[25. Any suggestion for Anne's mom's name? “リーネ克蘭”]・Auclair in good health?」

The moment Anne received the question, she kept silence for a moment and answered with a squeezing voice.

「She died. She committed suicide the day after father was executed」

「Is that so. I appreciate you telling me. ....So Lyne is dead」

For an instant, the instructor covered his eyes with his hands.
If what we're seeing is not a mistake, some tears where shone.

「Ladies and gentlemen of the candidates, To trouble you at this time I apologize. We will be heading soon to the practical exam venue」

The proctor doesn't show any traces of tears, having the same stern face when he came, we began to walk.
Somehow from my on eyes, his back appearance moved mournfully.

Twelfth Episode: Practical Test

We arrived at the meeting place for the practical skill while being accompanied by the proctor.

The facilities are enhanced, there's a coliseum for exchanging sword strike with, and various things including a target mark for archery training is prepared.

「Alright, attention everyone. We will now measure you all for your 【status】. The school is seeking talented individuals. One's strength is not required. Your 【status】 increase will be subtracted on your test result, good luck」

The new proctor was a pretty person who totally looked like a girl unlike the tall man of a while ago. Anyone will completely believe it if I told them that person was a student. As she was saying, to reserve the balance nature they will deduct the consumed magic stone from the test result.

When the rank differs, the level of the creature completely changes, the strength changes with the 【status】 of the same rank. [1. ランクが違うと、まったく生き物としての次元が変わるが、同じランクでも【格】によって強さが変わってくる。]

「Well then go line up, line up」

The examinees line up according to the instructions.

All in all, a total of ninety-eight people. There are fewer applicants who passed.

80% of the total examinee was disqualified within the lecture test.

When I lined up, my turn suddenly came.

「Now then, say your name」

「Souji。 I don't have a family name」

「Souji。 Then well go with the 【Status Measurement】 」

The proctor closes her eyes and then concentrates.

A magic equation then floats on my head A magician can execute a magic without mistaking any words by having the magic language in their heads.

In fact there are some tricks and information, I can see the floating equation. [2. 実はある程度のこつと知識があると、他人の浮かべている式が見える。] There's about fifty process in a intermediate magic. In my case, with the same magic I can shorten it into twenty process.

The proctor completed her magic after thirty seconds of me standing.

「Souji is, in the same condition when you were born, isn't it. You also haven't eaten any magic stones」

「Yeah, tat sort of practice I haven't experienced doing it」

「On the contrary it's quite unusual. In your present case, you can acquire a low rank magic stone」

「Maa, this guy might be self sufficient. He might not have any intention to eat a magic stone that was collected by others」

Magic stones is this City's major exports.

A particular effect is clearly shown if anyone consumes a low rank magic stone. As for stronger magic stone, when consumed while the 【status】 is low there is a risk of death, but if it's a low rank one then it's safe to consume.

Some parents often buys low ranking magic stones to make their child slightly stronger.

Furthermore when it comes to nobles, they hire an exclusive appraiser then buys all kinds of magic stones and gradually strengthens their child while the appraiser appraised the child's capacity.

As a result they can attain the superior power of a Rank 1 without fighting against any demons.

Although reaching Rank 2 is impossible. No one can exceed Rank 1 with just using magic stones.

「What an unusual child. Well, whatever. Without any correction to be deducted....oh, please wait a moment. In your pouch, there is a magic stone, isn't there? I'll keep it until examinations are over. Sometimes there are children who cheats with a magic stone after their appraisal was over.」

I handed over the magic stone I got from the deer-like monster.

「Wow, such an amazing magic stone, isn't this a high graded Rank 1 magic stone? Where did you obtain such a thing?」

「When I encountered a demon by chance, I defeated it and obtained it」

「Ahaha, you're such a joker.[3. But he is telling the truth....] Such as this, it's close to Rank 2, it will be impossible for you to beat it .[4. こんな、ほとんどRank2に近いようなの、君が倒せるわけないじゃん。] Then it may not be necessary to keep this. You might die if you used it」

「Then can you return it to me?」

「Un, sure. There are no child nor examinee who can use this.[5. これ使える子、受験者には絶対に居ないし。] But what a strange magic stone, it doesn't have an impurities, and it's so clear, it's the first time that I have seen one. It looks very delicious」

Of course it is. Because it's a special magic stone that I've cooked.

If you ask me, to eat the magic stone just as it is, is like virtually eating poison.

「The next one behind, is being held up」

「Ah crap, well then you can go now, proceed」

And then I went away from the line.

The various measurement was over.

Running, jumping strength, flexibility, stamina, reflexes.

Every one was measured with various means.

The examination had 12 items, and all the examinees accomplished it.

On a bulletin board are the measurements of all the examinees, moreover the number of the negative revision for it, together with it was the result of the lecture part earlier morning.

And I perceived them generally[6. そして、それらを総合的にとらえた。] Even the total points was posted.

The result, I'm in first place. Kuna is in the second place. And with her appearance Anne is in the third place.

The three people was surprised, no upgrade to increase in status and with zero revision. In most of the items, one of the three people was first.

The three people embraced each other with joy.

「Both of you didn't upgrade your status」 [7. Means non of the two used a magic stone]

「Chichiyu[8. father] said that I'll become weak if I us a magic stone without hunting a demon with my own power desu」

「At Kuna's place too? It's also the same as mine」

「Anyhow, from her on congratulations at reaching the top」

When using a magic stone without hunting the demon yourself half of it is recognized but also half of it is a mistake.[8. 魔物を狩らずにMagic_Stoneを使用すると弱くなるという認識は半分間違いで半分正しい。] Between buying a magic stone to raise one's 【status】, and by raising one's 【status】 by accumulating experience by fighting, the latter will make you much stronger.

The surrounding gazes were painful.

Envy was directed at us who attained the top scores, and more envy reached me as I'm embracing two beautiful girl.

「Hey instructor! Without any addition on their 【status】 at all, their numerical value is suspicious. They might have been cheating」

A student who was on fourth place uttered a cry of a protest. Among who was here, this boy has the most raised 【status】 .[9. raised via magic stone] In the case of the measurement, we were under surveillance, no financial power was used, it was just pilling discipline and pure training[10. 測定の際に要注意人物として見ていたが、金の力ではなく、鍛錬を積んでおり確かな実力を感じる。]

I was tall with my long hair tied together and had regular features.

「I myself, agrees on Lyle's opinion. I would like to re-measure their 【status】 immediately」

「Nii-san!」

One of the senior students that assisted in the examination raised a voice.

If I am not mistaken, I receive an introduction before the examination begins. In the second-year student's here are only two Rank 2. A student who was currently expected to reach Rank 3, It's a boy who was regarded as a model student.

His height was taller that the Lyle who was in the forth place, I can perceive the self-confidence as a strong Rank 2 fighter.[11. 四位のライル以上に身長が高く、Rank2という強者としての自信が見てとれる。]

「There's no stone.[12. Really not sure here..... 「それはないわね。] These children is good at using their mana. Their physical ability has been strengthened steadily with mana. The difference of their precision is vividly reflected on this result. Souji-kun in particular. Your technique is like an art. I'm looking forward to the future. Considering Kuna-chan, there are some tendencies, but have a good sense. Anne-chan had such a genuine effort. [13. Author made a typo here, instead of "Anne" he wrote "Aine"] The figures of the study quantity are different. Being an instructor you should have understand it.

「Instructor!!」

「So persistent. Then you should see it for yourself. We can use it right. Hey you」

「I understand. Then without hesitation」

Expressing a broad grin as he smile, the Rank 2 senior was walking toward us.

「Senpai, doing it is just a waste of time」

「Shut up!, I'll be the one to decide if it's wasteful. 【Status Measurement】」

Twice longer than with the instructor..... The measurement magic was use for a minute. It was the same as what the instructor used but the execution was slower, I got an impression that the construction of magic equation in mind was clumsy.

「Upgrade is zero, it's really true, nothing was strengthened」

「Senpai, didn't I already told you」

「Kuっ, next!」

And then comes Kuna and Anne but it resulted with zero upgrade in status.

「No way, impossible!」

「Nii-san!!」

The fourth place examinee run up.

「Hora, didn't I already told you. In this industry a genius will come out like a rain.[14. この業界にいと天才とか、ぼろぼろ出てくるからね。] You should just accept it obediently. ....It is surprising that three appeared at the same time though. Well if you ask me, you too are a genius」

Yareyare breaths a sigh

「You in the fourth place!」

「Ye-yes!」

The boy in the fourth place had a guilty conscience from his exaggerated response to his false accusation.

「There's no problem because I too understand how you feel. But, I want you to stop because like this it will be a waste of time」

「Un-understood」

「Also, the last examination is an actual practical skill by the true meaning. As for this, those who had superior 【status】 have an advantage. Therefore you should appeal with all you got」

「With all our effort!」

「Then, everyone, is been 30min already so we'll take a 15min break. It will be a test of performance from here on. An actual battle will be preformed in a tournament style. Do prepare your minds. And also, with the intention that this country's king will be watching the fight」

Everyone who was here gasp.

It was famous that the king comes here to watch the test yearly. But, hearing that just makes you to actually prepare. I clenched my fist while hiding my own incompetence. And then, If I handle every match safely in this battle tournament, then the three of us will be the scholarship student.

「Anne you're too tense」

「That's not the reason」

Because Anne made a stiff expression next to me, I called out to her.

So that's it, she is not uneasy for the actual battle. But was tensed at the king's arrival.

Because the King has a big relation to the fall of the Auclair house.

Volume 1 - Chapter 13

Thirteenth Episode: Magic Stone

「Hey you」

The Rank 2 sempai suddenly talked to me when the break begin.

「What is it sempai?」

While feeling doubtful, I replied with a smile.

「I doubt you badly a while ago. My apology」

「Thanks for that」

「Thereupon. If, you pass as a scholarship student, I can enter you into my party. Naturally, it's absurd to accept a first year who is wet behind the ears, but if it's you then it's possible. If you follow me, we will surely be the winning party」

It will probably be like that. This sempai is the only Rank 2 in the second years. There is no further condition if I make a Party in this school.

「I decline」

「What did you say!? This I[1] is inviting you!?!」

「I'll still decline even if it's another person. Because I already have a Party」

「.....Very well, You seems to be close to the women who got the second and third place」

「Yeah, they are my Party Members, the best comrades I can trust」

From the beginning I aim at the top with us three people. I didn't think of receiving any protection from someone.[2]

「Is that so, don't regret your choice..... OK then, I was being obstructive because my younger brother was also aiming to be a scholarship student」

「The King has arrived. Salute」

All the examinees were line up before the King came in.
And, it simultaneously salutes on signal.

The female instructor who got restless until a while ago tightens her expression neatly. Looking at the saluting examinees, the King nods and raised his voice.

「I've came at a good time. To the knights-to-be. I like to watch the state of the young people who have the aptitude exerting themselves. It's expected today that you'll be able to shine and have us show the glitter of your abilities. Convey your charm with all your effort」

The person seem to be good-natured, a voice with tolerance nevertheless mysterious.[3] It was said that compared to the several generation before, the King was the most charismatic of all. The portion of that could be seen.

「All hands, at ease」

We release our salutation.

「Well then, everyone disperse. I will watch your entire match from a special seat」

The King left and went to a expensive looking seat reserve for the distinguished guests. seal of nepu The King saw Anne while passing then left. With eyes of guilty conscience that somewhat having a feeling of pity.[4]

It's just natural..... The King know her father's false accusations. He knew and kept his eyes closed for his country's sake. The daughter of the retainer who he was personally on good terms with.

.....As for me and the King, both knows the truth behind the crime of Anne's father. When IRURANDE was still a game there was an event which shook the country, when topping the status on a certain degree the shadow will flicker from the body.[5]

But that knowledge became Anne. Because when I played IRURANDE, I've never met her. But there was a time when I regarded her sword as a sword of affection[6]. .....If I wasn't able to meet her with good timing this time, there was a probably that she lived somewhere, had fallen, then died or was turned into a slave and would come to the point of her parting with the sword.

I won't accept such thing! If that sword is by her site then that's the time that sword shines the most.

I look at the Tournament list.

The name of the top 64 people is in the tournament. I don't understand the appeal of fighting to eliminate candidates who have failed to score a certain number of points.[7]

It was said that the rank doesn't matter because what was shown in the match will be evaluated.

But that's just a deception. The more you win, the more times you'll be evaluated.

That's why, they generally use the results to decide who to seed, the high ranking students is planned to be evaluated till in last rounds. The spectator who came to watch gets excited.

Despite that.....

On the tourney list, me and Anne was the first one to face each other.

Isn't it an unwritten rule to seed the one with the good result? Well no one really did say that.

But it's unlikely. Surely this is a plan to lower the evaluation of Anne that was a criminal's daughter.

I recalled in my mind the words of the proctor who announced the lecture's test result.

『Don't think that everyone here won't move due to their emotions』

Surely, it's like that.

My sight suddenly gazed the tall man, the Rank 2 sempai was pleasantly chatting with a proctor different from the young lady before, I smiled when he looked at me with a grin.
[8]

Aah, so that's it. Did that sempai made use of Anne's crime as a pretext and incite that proctor?

「I'll do it」

There is also the method of throwing match on purpose. Unlike her, I can do anything to raise money easily.

But, That girl want to face each other sincerely with her sword. And awkward negligence will be easily exposed.

After all I'm in the situation were I've swore that us tr will become the scholarship students. I can't have the 【Demon Sword Tail】's first mission a failure. In that case, no matter how difficult the way is, al three of us will be selected as the scholarship students.

「Instructor, I have a suggestion!」

I raised my voice. So the King can hear it too..

「What is it? I'll list so let me hear it」

The female instructor's face slightly twitched. I'd have a bothersome hunch.[9]

「Frankly speaking, my abilities exceeds this place. It's a waste of my time just like playing a game. Such a pointless match. Until the tournament ends, do I have to honestly do it six times, what a drag」

「Y-you! What did you say!」

An instructor was enraged b the too haughty remark.
As for the other examinees wasn't a match, I was looked with such killing intent.

「Are you saying you don't intend to fight?」

「It's not that, I'm just saying that It's not necessary for me to fight six times. I'll demonstrate my abilities with just one match. By defeating the only Rank 2 of the second years!」

I pointed at the sempai who was the only Rank 2 in the second years that was expected to reach Rank 3 upon graduation, It's been a long time since I fearlessly smiled. For trying to crush us. It's unforgivable. I'll smash you and make you our steppingstone.

「Interesting! Interesting isn't it! Such a reckless youth, I like that」

The King in the special seat stood up while intensely clapping.

Now that I think about it, this unreasonable suggestion might not have been accepted. But, I've know the King from the game era. I have absolute confidence that the festive loving king will ride on with it.

【Nepu!! This translation can originaly be read at nepustation.com】

「Yeah, I would like to watch that. Good then. Let's do just that. Un, the genius of the active students, and the genius of the examinees battle it on. This is becoming exciting」

All the instructor was flustered. They like to turn it down but the king was enthusiastic about it. It's impossible to just ignore it.

「I would like to request it as well! I will not be satisfied if I don't break this impertinent boy's nose! For someone with a Rank 1 【status】 who haven't acquired any experience can't be left as it is」

The Rank 2 sempai who was in rage trusted a challenge to me as it was natural.

As for the sounding examinees, they want to see me have a painful experience. Yare yare! I stand up with haste. Meanwhile, Kuna and Anne watched uneasily with teary eyes and was holding each other's hand.

Specially for Anne who seems to have guess that my action is for her sake, why do you have such expression?

I signaled thumb up to the two while smiling somewhat saying to them that 『I'll win』 .

「Your Majesty, you can't. That child is just a Rank 1 moreover he haven't gain any 【status】 at all. Even if there is a divine protection, If the opponent is a Rank 2 then he'll instantly die! I do not want to witness a talented youth be crushed」

「Instructor it's all right, I'm full prepared. Permit it by all means. Everyone also wishes for it」

The surroundings agreed with me.

「Bu-but I still can't permit it. If you receives an attack from a Rank 2, The divine protection would catch up and you'll die」

「Is that so..... Well then, Sempai. The instructor is telling my 【status】 is not up to par, and saying that I shouldn't fight you. Then in hat case, may I consume one magic stone?」

「I don't care ze, because nothing will change even if you consume one. Until now, I consumed several hundred magic stone just to get to Rank 2」

「Well then I accept the offer」

I took out the high tiered huge Rank 1 magic stone.

Originally I can only eat this huge magic stone after I reached the phase where my body can endure it.

Everyone in the surrounding suddenly turned pale.

However you look at it, this was just plain suicide.

At any rate, to consume this magic stone with such power, I have to consume magic stones for 15 times that is stronger than the last one consumed. Butt I've skipped all that.[10]

「Stop that! You'll die!」

The instructor who turned pale was running in order to stop me.

But I was a tad faster.

On the forehead of the magic stone[11], I silently prayed while consuming it.

Green light unwraps from the magic stone and was absorbed into my body.

seal of nepu The wind blew with we as it's center.

「Well then, sempai, my preparations are completed. Let's do this」

A stir is heard from the surrounding Impossible.

It's strange.

Unthinkable.

What exactly is that guy.

「With this I'm a mid tier Rank 1. Because of that I won't instantly die」

Originally it's the first territory that I've arrived and it took several months, from zero the rush of overlapping surprises the instant that I've arrived.[12] From the surrounding, voice starts leaking with topics about the miracle Rank up. The audience who was expecting my execution begun to look forward with a true significance.

「You! I don't have any idea what method you just used, but it still doesn't change the fact that you're just a Rank 1. I'll kill you with one swift attack!」

Sempai said while his hand slightly trembled.
While we were being watched, the king opens his mouth.

「Ahahahaha, interesting, it's getting more interesting. I have never seen such a reckless youth. Do it, no, Do it as the King's direct order. I desire the match between the Rank 2 and Rank 1」

The surrounding eyes were focused on the instructor.
The instructor was conflicted ,in the dept of his heart has an unwilling state then opened his mouth.

「I permit it. I'll change the first match to Second Year Lyle Vs. Examinee Souji. As for Anne who was supposed to be Souji's opponent, will have a default win for two matches. The match will commence in ten minutes later」

A cry rose from from the audience seat and a match here was just established.

Volume 1 - Chapter 14

Fourteenth Episode: Twisting the arms of fate with my magic

The match will start after ten minutes.
I was in the waiting room.
Kuna and Anne came in.

「Why did you do such a reckless thing!？」

Anne pressed me with that question.
Her usual calmness cannot be seen.

「It is as what I just said at that time. I can get off by being evaluated only once if I have a match with a Rank 2 and knock him down」

「Liar, it was for my sake right? 」

「If I'm not mistaken, you're saying that I'm doing it for the sake of the evaluation is a lie. I'll admit it. But it does not mean that it's for Anne's sake. It's for all of us. 【Demon Sword Tail】 's first mission is for all members to grab the scholarship student slots. So I did it for that reason」

「But!」

「This is just my pride. Don't get in my way」

I said it forcefully.

「Anne, Souji-kun has already resolved himself desu. It's not good to get in the way of a man's pride desu. A good woman should just see them off quietly at such time desu[1]」

「.....I understand. I won't stop him」

Anne said so while looking down.

「But Souji-kun. Please promise me. You must win and absolutely come back to us[2]
That's not it, in my whole life, I regret at that I've hit you that time even though I should have stopped」

「I promise. I will absolutely be victorious」

Because Kuna demanded a pinky swear, I respond to it.

「You promised it. ....When I'm with Souji-kun, life it's always full of surprises desu.
Suddenly consuming such huge magic stone mon. I was really shocked. The fact that you survived was a miracle desu」

「That isn't so. In the first place, do you know why a person can die when consuming a magic stone?」

I asked the most fundamental question.

「I don't know desu. It's just kind of like that」

「To tell you the truth, magic stones contains miasma with the ability to make us stronger in large quantities. A miasma is a poison which violates the soul. So unless the body can endure it, they will instantly die」

Yes, that's the drawback of a magic stone.

As for the players of IRURANDE of the game era, they seriously make an order of magic stones to consume and what demons to obtain it from.

But, it's difficult to do a step-by-step stage and get a magic stone with the right strength, although it's safe, I had no choice but to choose the way to take a lot of inefficient magic stone with a bad Rank. Anyways, the magic stone's strength differs with the same type of demon, so you can't normally get it.

The present residents of sealed city doesn't change either, that is. The residents here took low tier magic stones in large quantities and little by little choose one that is slightly stronger than the other.

That's why a Rank 3 isn't easily produced.

「But there's no point even when I know that」

「Is that so, if the problem is known then it's easy to settle it. Just remove the miasma」

「That's impossible. They're perfectly mixed」

「I can do it. That's why, I was able to consume that magic stone」

Naturally, many payers disliked the bad efficiency.

To fundamentally settle it, tens of thousand of players each begun analyzing the magic stones.

They discovered the existence of the miasma and tried to remove it by various approaches. Several hundred of hypotheses are shared by the magic development team, in order to demonstrate, magic which corresponds to the respective hypotheses of hundreds of people is developed.

The result was, a magic equation that removes the miasma from the magic stone was completed in two years in game time.

The improved magic equation is what I've now used.

「Furthermore after removing the miasma isn't only safe, there is also an effect that double the strength compared to that when the miasma was present. The magic stone's power and the miasma's power repelled each other that's why the the strength obtained was reduced by half」

「Isn't it too wonderful desu ka? Felling at ease when consuming a magic stone, and furthermore the efficiency is doubled! It's revolutionary desu yo. Please teach me this now」

「Err, that maybe tough, because it's a magic with 762 processes」

You at most must be high tier, just to use 100 processes.
It's to the extent that it's too much for the norm.

「That, isn't it an impossible magic for a person desu ka!」

「It depends on the effort」

More or less, there's a trick here.

When a normal person imagines the magic equation, a character string is imagined. But for a homunculus, because the magic equation is originally engraved in the brain, certain magic can be execute. For what can be engraved at a time is until up to 2420 processes, I can stock that many magic in it's limit. When I feel like it, I can delete a magic equation and I can put another magic equation.

seal of nepu

That application is also possible to engrave magic equations on others' brain. In that case, Even as a normal person, under any circumstances, It's possible to use complicated magic at high speed. However, once the magic equation is engraved, it can never be deleted.

There are individual differences, because it's until 1000 process at most, It's necessary to carefully examine it before engraving the magic.

Anyhow, if Kuna and Anne allow me to, I want to present the highest magic to them.

「There's no problem if Kuna can't use it. Because I'll purify the miasma, you'll just have to consume the purified magic stone」

「A way to reach Rank 3 with ease, it has the strange feeling of unfairness desu」

「It's certainly so. It's speed is several dozens times faster than other people」

「Sorry for being so unfair. How many blood and tear do you think was shed in order to create this magic」

Tens of thousand of people in two years.

On the BBS[3], innumerable hypothesis plans appeared and shared like a round robin just to develop this magic. This is a development drama at the same level as project X. I thought whether that died.[4] I almost gave up midway several times, but I struggled until the very end, for the purification magic.

「A magic to purify a magic stone. Did Souji created that? So that's why i never heard any rumors about that」

「Right desu. If there was one, then the rumor will instantly spread right?」

They raised their voice as the two agreed.

「Though I didn't make this alone, I was part of a development team」

「Nothing but amazing people desu ne. I want to meet them someday」

「That might be somewhat hard, Because everyone is busy, maybe someday」

I deceived them with a forced smile.
it's almost time.

「Kuna, Anne. Thanks. Because of you two, my nervousness disappear. I'll win. For our party, for the sake of 【Demon Sword Tail】」

「Souji-kun I believe in you」

「Souji. Don't die even if you lose」

「I won't die, and I absolutely won't lose. To this emblem, I promise I'll win」

I put up the emblem hanging on my neck.

Well then, let's go. Toward victory.

Even if I raised my 【status】 to mid tier Rank 1, I won't hold a candle to the Rank 2 sempai. The difference of the fighting power between me and the opponent is tremendous.

If we compare them, it's like a fight between a elementary school kind versus a professional wrestler.

There's a difference in power.

But, there's nothing to fear.

I've already experience this same situation with a degree of hopelessness hundreds of times already.

「Rank 1, you didn't run away and came」

I rise toward the platform in the colosseum.
It's an authentic enclosed stone system.

「I came, Sempai」

「Without any weapon at hand, are you making fun of me?」

Sempai has a plain lightweight plate mail and a one-handed sword it an easy to handle length.

「I do have a weapon at hand. 【Magic Silver Refining: First Mode • Lance Piercer】」

I executed the magic and transformed the ring coiled around my arm into a spear.

「.....Using such bizarre skill」 [5]

【Nepu! This translation can be only read at nepustation.com】
Some senior and spectators have noticed the abnormality of this magic.
In addition to the capacity of my magic.

【Nepu! This translation can be only read at nepustation.com】

seal of nepu

「Sempai, I just want to know before the match starts. Is it because you were irritated when I refused your party invitation or is it because sempai want sempai's otouto[6] to get the scholarship student slot that's why you involved Anne? You were going to stomp on her dream. I wonder if that perception was a safe bet?」

I was angry. To clear the false charge to her father and take the pride of the Auclair house back, she aims to be an honorable noble. I will never forgive any guy to trample her wish for such good-for-nothing reasons.

「Please answer it」

「.....That's right. It's just like you have said. But even if I didn't do it, someone will crush that woman eventually, such is her fate. That woman's fate was sealed the moment her house became a great criminal. It will be destroyed. Before she gets some unfit dreams, I'll immediately finish it. I want you to appreciate that」

Sempai expressed a sarcastic smile.

Certainly, it's like as he said. The crime Anne's father will torment her throughout her life. As far as I know it, Anne yields to despair to the extent that it release the demon sword spirit by all means.[7]

【Nepu! This translation can be only read at nepustation.com】

「I see, it's fate」

「That is so. It's fate. Because you're related to it, You too will be destroyed. You should have followed me that time, I'll make you regret throughout your life」

「If such is ones fate, as you say.....」

I won't accept that. If I don't accept it then there's only one thing to do. Then I.....

「I'll twist the arms of fate with my magic」

I declared it as I thrust my spear. I only have that power.
Even if we overcome this place, fate will hit her next time. The I'll screw it down every time that happens.
Sempai became nervous and stepped back.

The female instructor stands at the center between me and sempai.

「I'll explain the rules. If the divine protection runs out, you faint, or you give up then it's means your defeat. In addition, whatever happens in this match is your own self-responsibility. Is there no problem for both parties?」

「I don't mind ze」

「I too, don't have any problem with it.」

Divine Protection, in this world, when one is wounded blue particles will emerge. There is individual difference, it raise to the extent of ones 【status】 , the quantity one will possessed becomes big.
The moment it runs out, any wounds would not heal.

That's why, the problem above all is no matter how much you raise your 【status】 , if you run out of divine protection it will loss it's effect. It will become the same as a commoner's defense and physical ability. Only death awaits to those who will take an attack from the opponent in that state.
Even if a scratch can be cured by magic, you have no choice but to wait for the divine protection's natural recovery.

【This translation can be only read at nepustation.com】

「Well then, both parties ready.....」

The instructor prepares.

Me and sempai hold our weapon.

Kuna and Anne's hands are both linked in front while praying.

I have to quickly win to let the two have a peace of mind.

「Start!」

And the match has started.

Cheat Majutsu De Unemei Wo Nejifuseru Fifteenth Episode: Divine Spear

[Rank 1 and Rank 2.The obstacle was heavy.]

As the same time as the match starts Sempai started to run.Are you underestimating me that much, brandishin your huge sword like that while charging.The movement was simple but it was fast.I won't even reach half of that speed even if I let go of my weapon and sprint at full power.

I relaxed my whole body.It's still to early.Distance is 2m.I reduced the steps without any unnecessary movements; I placed the spear to Sempai's expected route.Sempai wasn't able to react to a completely natural movement.

Even if the [status] raises your ability, your reflex for kinetic vision does not change. It's a counter from outside the consciousness, Even with the difference on speed a quick reaction is imposibble.

[Ku!]

Sempai had a surprised expression but it was already to late.Without stopping his movement, it became a figure plunging in to spear.Adjusting the spear in my right hand, I aimed at the throat part.

He completely sucked-up the spear as it hits the throat.While plunging into the soft throat with force, it lightly pierce a fatal wound.

But, a hard scratching sound was heard.With only the tio of the spearhead, as if a needle was used, just a small wound was made.There was a little damage to Sempai.Despite this, there's a dull pain on my wrist, a blue particle flashes and recovery begins.My divine protection is decreasing.

[Wa, That was regretfuk Rank 1 ]

Sempai advances while the spear is being trusted in his throat.No good.I this continues my wrist will be broken, and my divine protection will be greatly consumed.I relaxed my wrist.At that instant the upper body has taken a tremendous force.Sempai swung down his sword to the me that has the lost balance.

Without trying to recover from my forceful lost balance, I utilized the thrwon momentum.Using the left foot as a focal point for a high-speed rotation, he sneaked toward the rear.The spear acquires a centrifugal force that wasn't used to pierce but to now instead, he aimed the stirle toward the medulla oblongata.

To avoid a downward swing of a something long with a centrifugal force was useless, I succeeded into hitting his medulla oblongata. This single blow can kill a person normally. But in my hands comes a blunt feeling, Sempai didn't moved an inch. I backed away by two steps. To me who was on full guard, Sempai slowly looked back at me and expressed a smile.

[Quite regrettable if you were just in the same rank as me, you could have killed me twice. Iya, that was surprising. To be able to do that here. Your spearmanship is frightening. The confidence was just a trap]

[My Pleasure]

[But with this you should have understood. You can't kill me. There's no way to kill me]

[I've done some damage on your skin. If repeated over ten thousand times, won't Sempai's divine protection run out?]

Countering the opponent using their own speed. In addition to aim at the throat part with the power concentrated on the spearhead damages a piece of the skin. It causes me to sob. This is the difference between Rank 2 and Rank 1.

[It can be done if i try. But, I already know. You don't have any experience. I will corner you bit by bit]

Sempai took a sword stance which aims at the eye. Furthermore, his body was covered with magical light. Using magic, he reinforced his physical ability.

[Here I go, Rank 1 (smallfry) ]

I trust into him the same way just like a while ago. But, without breaking the stance he quickly slide without running in big steps. There's no opening. It's now impossible to put a counter like before.

I made up my mind.

[ Body Reinforcement - Extreme Limit]

Just simply, my body reinforcement doesn't drain any mana, in the game era this was called the most superior body reinforcement magic.

The phosphorescence of the magic overflows, my whole is strengthened. Furtheri when injured a blue phosphorescence of divine protection will gush out. It's because this is beyond the limit, it is a body reinforcement magic when the body receives damage.

Divine protection is shaved off every second. But to that extent if it is not done, I'll be instantly kileed.

[Fu]

I used the the spear's long range to let out a trust. A single blow without any spare movements, it hit without letting the opponent react. Compared from earlier Sempai's speed fell, th,s ,s thanks to [Body Reinforecement - Limit] However it only shaved a layer of skin.

When repelled, an opening was made. Sempai was about to slash with the sword. Doing a small backswing, there was no openings. There's a minimum movement similar to a Kendo's men.

Speed are too different. At any rate, if it's a large swing I can't evade it. I slant my spear and let it slide. My hand goes numb, I should have eluded it's power. Even the physical strength is too different.

[Ora, what's the matter?]

He swings continuously. His continues swings leaves little opening. With the difference of our skills, a counterattack is possible. But it's a useless even if it's done here. I took a small step, I evaded as much as possible and accomplished the impossible. Let alone a direct hit, my defeat is settled if i didn't evade and parried it instead.

[Ora! Are you even defending!]

I continued my defense silently. I have no room to reply. The slight impact cracked a bone when i evaded this way. The recoil of [Body Reinforcement - Limit] affects my body. Each time recovery activates, my divine protection gets drained out. This is the be a one-sided match. But Sempai's expression has lost it's composure and doubts starts to surface.

[Temee! How can you receive such injuries? You're just a Rank 1 and yet to use body reinforcement that much, why isn't your mana getting depleted!?!]

Sempai has an astonished expression. Even if just merely but impatience begun to surface. Even if i devoted myself in defending, it's not possible for a Rank 1 to continuously receive a Rank 2's attack.

It's thanks to [body Reinforcement - Limit] This isn't called a reinforcement limit release for nothing. For high-speed calculations mana is concentrated, it's essential for necessary occasions. Normal reinforcement strengthens the whole body, but this magic is on a whole different dimension. Problem is, doing it to that extent it's status quo still falls behind yet the physical ability is still overwhelming.

And my mana is not running out, this is my most secret of my secret arts. Because mana is stored in the Mithril that wasn't change into a weapon beforehand, it acts as an extra mana furnace. If it was my own mana then I already be drained out long ago. [Body Reinforcement * Limit] is not a fuel efficient magic at all.

Sempai was getting impatient and changed his aim, starting with destroying the spear he aims his attack towards the spear.

Certainly if i recieved that attack with my spear it will break and there's a chance that my hands will go numb. But Sempai forgot something. I'm not warrior but a magician.

[What the!?!]

The Spear melted at impact and the sword passed without stopping.

[Magic Silver Refining : Sixth Mode - Twin Sword Series]

The spear was spitted into two, it seperated into two short swords and fits into both my hands. The distance has been shorten and isn't the suitable distance for a spear, but a distance for Semapi's sword. That being the case, I'll be checkmated in a step distance, and at this distance it's more suitable for these short swords.

At my right and left hand was a short sword, I slashed at the neck and wrist's artery respectively.

...The audience was getting excited by the series of offense and defense.

But just a scratch in the skin as expected. In order for Sempai to return the debt of disgrace, he increased his rotation. However it became a monotonous and was easy to read, moreover now is the appropriate time. For some time now it was easier to deal with it.

Stop being so annoyiiiiinnnnngggggg!!

Being disgusted toward me a large swing follows. It didn't hit me. With that blow, I distance myself away.

I gave up stepping an extra movement, I back away from the sword's distance.

[Magic Silver Refining : First Mode - Lance Piercer]

Once again I turned it into a spear, while following Sempai's sword with my eyes it immediately passes, I scooped up the spear from below going upward in full power similar to swinging a golf club.

The aim is Sempai's balls.

The aimed spear strongly hits Sempai's balls all according to KEIKAKU. I muster all the strength of my heart able to hold out the attack that came from below ground going upward. The physical strength of a Rank 1 isn't just for show. Sempai's body was blown in a flashy way.

He flown 5m to the sky, Sempai was completely able to do it like a stone would. He was thrown against the colosseum.

Even the balls might be tough. Rank 2 Sempai's that is.

I've thrown a jike while fixing my breath. My back was wet with cold sweat and my heart screams from the long movement when resting. I checkmated it when continued being attacked for another five seconds.

Although I hit him with the power to send you flying 5m, his balls wasn't crushed.

Certainly he already stopped being human.

Way to go! Rank 1

He can do it, he really can do it. That was totally unexpected.

Damn, I bet on An-chan when it was profitable.

Although it was a long shot.

Cheers splashed from the audience seat. They were charmed by my fighting. There was almost no damage at that one blow. Rather from the start until now all my hits are not effective as expected.

On the contrary, as for me, I fractured a bone each time I evade Sempai's swings, so I kept getting a backlash from [Body Reinforcement - Limit], at best only 45% of my divine protection remains. When 30% remains, the divine power becomes extremely weak, both the defensive power and physical ability drops. If that happens then it's already hopeless.

The mana from my mana furnace is also running out, almost half of the mana remains. Surely this is a desperate situation.

[Ma-making a fool out of me. I'll kill you. I'll absolutely kill you!]

[Sempai, that's a sound treat, I'll leave you all beaten up, I can say such lines well don't you think so? At least say that after landing a single hit on me. ....Iya, you don't have to hit me.If i receive it with the spear, you can snap it in one stroke.Even that wasn't possible although with this much exchanging blows, right ]

I purposely tell that to let the audience hear it.The laughter suddenly resounds.It is I who was really cornered, but judging from the audience, it doesn't look like so at all.Sempai can attack one-sidedly and the attack is evaded, so it looks like he has been made a fool off.That is important.

[I'll kill you!]

[Is that the only thing you can say? You have a limited vocabulary it seems.Because it is like this,Semapi's sword trajectory is quite simple.It's easily evadable, when you pursuing too much without any talent is using a sword, and getting close the heart of my spea]

Audience's laughter becomes terrible.I added fuel to Sempai's anger one after another.I secretly shorten the distance.2m 30cm.I ready my body at any moment.An opportunity for my certain kill.

[Be prepared, I'll show you how serious I am]

The strength of Sempai's body reinforcement increases.However, it was distorted when his strength was increased.It wasn't able to handle the mana which made it stronger.Mou, I completely lost sight of it...This is plenty enough.I'll finished this with my trump card.

[Sempai, there!]

I pointed at the pebble rolling behind Sempai, at the same time a small explosion was made by a fire magic.There's not much power, but it made some noise for distraction.Normally you won't fall for it.But because Sempai had lost his composure he was startled by it, he was lured to look at the pebble that i pointed at and make it explode. In a fight, when your sight and consciousness has been taken away, it will prove to be fatal.

[Divine Spear]

My trump card for this match.I executed the fastest and the the strongest magic that this spear is used for.This magic is theoretically a fast trust using whole power of the body. This single blow will surely decide the match.I have put this tactics together for that purpose only.This is the only effective attack I can do it at this moment,

I'll gamble everything with this one strike.

I avoided any waste to its limit, this spear technique is the strongest magic i made with the only purpose of delivering the fastest spear trust within a short distance.This is the partner I've relied off the most.

Advancing a step forward, I trust the spear.However, from my foot to my waist, waist to my arm, my arm to my hands, my hands to the spear, and interlocking movement of artistic power draws a spiral, furthermore [Divine_Spear] goes ahead in addition to [Body Reinforcement - Limit]

[Body Reinforcement - Limit] is an essential point, it only concentrates the mana but [Divine Spear] pours the whole mana in accordance to the weight movement.

Being aware of the muscle fibers linked one by one by body movement, I concentrate all my mana only on the muscle operation by by timing the movement.

It ruins the body and the change the magic reaction beyond that of reasonable degree. but before it breakt the body, [Divine Spear]'s god-like speed will make the spear reach. I was prepared losing 10% of my divine protection to fire this off. While i was emitting mana phosphorescence and the divine protection phosphorescence from the body I wield the [Divine_Spear], w,th god-like speed I returned Sempai's gaze and it pierced his eyes.

[Gyaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa!!]

Assuming that there were a difference between Rank 1 and Rank 2, using the [Divine_Spear] which concentrated all of my existence on one point, if i aimed at the soft eyes the it will pierced through. That place is the weak point. A theory when a lower rank aims for victory.

The Spear that pierced the eyes deeply stuck. From Sempai's body tremendous blue phosphorescence flickers around the area. The spear can'T be oulled out, It was efficiently embedded. As long as the spear remains embedded, Sempai will continue to receive the fatal wound. Thos when anormous divine protection is lost all at once, you will be filled with the sense of lost and won't be able to move.

Sempai can't pull out the spear by himself aymore.

[Magic Silver Refining:First Mode - Lance Piercer]

I made another spear from the Mithril on my thigh. Mou, I'm already exhausted the mana and it's already useless as an extra mana battery.

[Waaaaa!!]

I aim at his flank and thrust with my full strength. Sempai's divine protection was cut down to under 30% thus making his toughness decrease sharply. I can pierce through him now even with my current power.

The sensation of penetrating through the meat. The second spear had pierced through this body. His left eye and flank, from both parts phosphorescence leaks out like fireworks.

[That's far enough!! The winner is Souji. Immediately pull out those speaaaaarrrrrrr. The divine prtection is already under %20! He'll immediately die if his divine protection wears pff!!]

The female insturctor was shouting while running. I intended to pull the spear out within 3 seconds even if they didn't said it. The place where the injury is exactly is will be healed in line of using up ones divine protection.

[Magic Silver Refining: Ring]

Executing the magic equation, I dissolved the spears and wound it around my upper arm and thigh as always. The blue phosphorescence from Sempai's body came to a stop.

[Oi, boy are you ok!]

The insturctor was desperately shaking Sempai's body.

[I, my eye, have, my eye, have, I'm...alive?]

He call it repeatedly whetver his eyes have been broken.

[Boy you're alive, and your eyes are ok ]

]I-I'm g-glad]

[Sempai, that was a good match]

I Hold out my hand to help now awaken Sempai who is sitting down.

[Hii, no noooOOOOOO!, no speaaaarrrrRRRR!]

However, my good will was fruitless. While rolling up and almost fell down, Sempai desperately runs away. As I expected, he will suffer a trauma from being pierced on the eyes with a spear while still alive. I'll be worried whether I destroyed the promising Sempai's future. When did I had such a worry?

[Uoooooooooooo, he really won!]

[The Rank 1 vs Rank 2 match was amazingggggg!]

[Oh crap! That last spear wasn't visible to us audience]

[Iya iya , the first counter to the throat is the most wonderful!]

[What are you saying! The first scoop send a Rank 2 flying off!]

The audience seat was greatly excited. Meanwhile, the instructor begins to talk.

[Boy, these are my personal impressions. I am not fond of that sort of victory. You have no consideration for your opponent at all]

[I was able to win only by using that method]

[.....That I understand. But, someday that will trip someone out boy. This is an advice from your sempai in life]

With eyes that seemd to totally feel nostalgic for, the instructor watched me.

[As for that a while ago, the winner declaration was an emergency so therefore I'm here to do it once again.]

While saying so, the isntructor takes my hand and raises it highly. [Winner! Rank 1 examinee, Souji. In addition I'll announce the scholarship student decision here as a special exception]

Cheers resounds all over. Especially the King was intesely making a racked the most. Kuna the Firefox was not worrying about her hat flying off and her fox ears being bare, while saying 'amazing' she shed tears while embracing Anne. But Anne was watching me wih an absentminded face as like having been delirious with fever.

-Anne's Point of View-

I have confidence on using a sword. When I was a child I called for sword experts to gain experience. I feel certain awe for the skills of an expert. Howere, as for me, my soul has not been shaken until today. The heart and soul of the spear that souji fired. The Single blow with a god-like speed that was over in a moment.

I won't ever forget it throughout my life. The limit where all uselessness has been taken out. The mad passion that was only poured from the fasttrust was being transmitted. With the precise coldness that was inhuman, contradicts with the single blow that burns the flame of life passionately.

How much training did he piled up to acquired such a state?To what extent of passion can create such god-like skills.

For the first time I noticed.Whatever it is, if it taken to the extreme then it will be beautiful.Whatever kind of artwork, flower, or jewel, it can't rival that beauty.I even though that I wanted to be penetrated by that spear.

Before I noticed it, the inside of my body became hot.To my intense excitement, I want to take my clothes off, throw them away and scream.Aa, so that's it, for the first time...I fell in love.

CHEAT MAJUTSU DE UN MEI WO NEJIFUSERU) Sixteenth Episode: Phantom from the Past

I drag my body that was wounded all over back to the Waiting room.

With a Rank 1's body (Body Reinforcement Limit) and (Divine Spear) excessiveness had passed. The backlash of (Divine Spear) was taken hold of my body. My remaining divine protection was under 30%.

When divine protection had reached under 30%, there is a drop on defensive power and physical abilities, also the amount of divine protection recovered decrease.

If I'm physically in perfect condition, normally within three day's limit the divine protection will recover with its maximum amount of reserve, but

When it is fewer than 30% until it recovers its recovery speed is 1/3 of the original until it reaches 30%. If I completely lost my divine protection, it will take more than a week until my divine protection can be restored.

To think about it, there are also Such circumstances where an adventurer returns to the Surface when it's fewer than 50%. it doesn't particularly mean OverStrain easily.

I'm tired of this body

The calculative ability decreases, and I can hardly use destructive power type magic. Spatia Disruption is an atomic decomposition. A mass breakdown by kinetic energy of the zero fixations. If

I can use these magic, I can pierce through regardless of the defense by the divine protection.

Under the present conditions, firepower beyond its enchantment can't take out a body that is reinforced by divine protection. Although, the story is different if can secure enough runtime, may not have that chance during battle.

I have to increase my rank quickly.....

I sat down the chair while swaying as if falling down. Being cornered to here after a longtime mentally gave up. Same with my divine protection, my brain and body which was pushed to its limit was Screaming.

I can't maintain conscious. Let's rest for a while.

Souji-kun!

While was half asleep, heard a nostalgic voice. Are, that's Strange, she should have died already.

Wasn't able to Save her.

Souji-kun! Please wake up!

Her tone is different from the usual.

The Kuna that I know has a Colder tone. Without any emotions, and just says the minimum things.

Mou, the next person is coming yo. If Oji-chan want's to sleep, go sleep in the house

Don't ever say such jokes.

I'll carry you yo. If you touch at any strange place then I'll get angry! Aa, let's quickly get out, Annechan's match at the Second ground will begin

Kuna Carries me piggyback Style. clung to her reflectively. With a sweet smell and soft body, the body temperature that was transmitted was slightly comfortable.

I buried my face in her rich blond hair.

Fuwau!?

Kuna trembled With a twitch.

It's a nice Smell. I want to do it more.

What are suddenly doing? Your breath is tickling my Scruff..... You mustabsolutely get up masu yone, I'll lower you down now

It's a nice smell

If you're awake then stand on your own legs yo

FI'm tired. Let's stay like this for a while

Are you really that tired masu?

Presently, I also don't want to take another step

I can already walk but I want to verify Kuna's existence. I was able to meet you again after along time. Even if it's a dream, I want to do it this way.
love her.

This reminds me, it was like this in the past, I was badly injured and was carried this way.

At that time, I also said that it was a nice smell.

What did she said at that time?..... must recall it. I don't like my smell. The dirt can't be removed and it doesn't disappears

ΓKuna, you smell nice J

I heard that a while ago. Because it's embarrassing so stop it.

Kuna's Voice Was mixed with bashfulness.

She seems to not hate it but wasn't heard. I was glad. I wanted to see this girl, I wanted to try various things and make her laugh more.

Souji-kun is such a spoiled child sune. I'll let it slide for today as you did your best. Mou, I'll be gentle just for today desu karane

Kuna Wirily Smiled and has begun to walk. I'm certain; she was always saying I want to return. It's was just a monologue, but even while having a nightmare at night, I want to return was repeated.

Kuna, Kuna's hometown, do you want to return to Elucie?

I don't want to return ever!

That so

What is it desu ka? That joyful tone

It's nothing. Really, it's nothing at all

My long regret was over. At last, I'm glad that she is finally facing ahead. If this is a dream, then I don't ever want to wake up.

Kuna, if, if you like to Smile, please show me a Smiling face.

...Were you hit at a bad place? Souji-san, you're really acting Weird desuyo

I'm looking at Kuna who became worried while gently putting me down.

It's not weird. I wanted to see the smiling face of Kuna the whole time. I grew tired of seeing both the Crying face and grimace of Kuna already. Surely the way where Kuna Smiles is pretty cute, always think of that

Nah, really, what is is desuka, mou

Kuna's face was red-hot and was confused.

It's a request. Please smile

Why do you have such a face which seems to cry desu ka? Understand. I understand it. I'll smile masu yo, Souji-kun is acting really Weird

And Kuna was giggling with a tiny smile.

I'm glad. Even if it's a dream, this girl had smiled. then fell as if my strings were cut off.

Are, where am I?

When I woke up, I seemed to be in the Colosseum's audience seat.

And next to me Was Kuna.

Souji-kun.

What is it Kuna?

Fuu, it's the usual Souji-kun sune. I'm glad.

Usual?

Don't you remember? In the waiting room, Souji-kun Was really Weird desu yo J

I can't remember anything after I collapsed on the chair

*Jii—to* Kuna was looking at my face. I was doubt frankly.

Even if you have such face, I can't remember

What I don't remember

When I lend my back to you with good intention you suddenly embraced me, with an indecent movement using those filthy hands

Don't remember it

Fuun, is that so desu ka. You Suddenly buried your face in my nape then did some sniff-sniff, and you said that it's a nice Smell repeatedly don't you remember desu ka?

Aa, don't remember it

Kuna looks at me With a face of disbelieve.

Telling me to smile, because you said that my smiling face was the cutest

I already said, I don't remember

When I said so, I sighed deeply.

Please return my maiden's pure heart!..... maa, fine desu. Souji-kun

Kuna expressed a well-defined expression.

Souji-kun had been sleeping too long. I and Annechan have been alternating to Watch over you. AS for the tournament, next is the semifinal's second match desu. In the first match, Anne-chan Won and moved to the finals..... By the way, it's my turn next desu

That's Wonderful.

I Wanted to see Kuna's fight by all means. I even think that her flames are like an art.

Best of luck. And your opponent is?

It's the person who was at fourth place who nitpicking at us. From that person Sometime ago often said that he'll avenge his Rank 2 brother who was defeated nanoka, I persistently said with sarcasm "I'm off" desuyone. Especially when he is Speaking badly of Anne-chan desu

That's very irritating

Hai, almost beat him up. Souji-kun has shown it to me; I will go all out on this

Kuna smiled with a broad grin.

And Souji-kun. What kinds of girlish expression do you like the most desu ka?

A smiling face naturally

I see. The, I'm off

Kuna with a smiling expression turned her back on me. Her majestic figure, I'll certainly carve it into my eyes.

The assembly hall was filled with excitement. Everyone's gaze was concentrated on Kuna.

ΓKuna's amazing

That's right. Her existence is like a flower. Whenever the match piles up, it becomes popular

Anne who just returned to her seat was saying it proudly as if it's herself.

Until now, what kind of fight was shown?

She enhanced her physical ability, and then afterwards her opponent resembled an octopus after the beating

Neither weapon nor flame was used?

I think that it's inevitable. There are few weapons that can put up with a Firefox's strength, and if she used her flame at that moment they will find out that she's a Firefox

With Kuna's fox ears inside a hat and her tail within a skirt; she is hiding the fact that she's a Firefox. In that situation, there will only be nothing but Strategies.

But I think that the next match will be serious

The Colosseum became Kuna's arena, clothes were thrown off.

Enthusiastic cheers were shouted from the audience.

Kuna had already exposed her fox ears and foxtail. With only a sleeveless body fit clothes and hot pants.

The sleeveless clothes and hot pants clings onto her body, Kuna's attractive limbs was produced glamorously.

And her fox ears and tail that was a Firefox's feature made her stand out with distinguished harmony.

Everyone in the venue was breathless with Kuna's charm.

See now and understand it. This time, Kuna will be truly serious. The seriousness of a Firefox in a field is impossible for humans under any condition.

Cheat Majutsu De Unemei Wo Nejifuseru Chapter 17 : Dance of the Firefox

What happened, you begun to take your clothes off? Are you planning to seduce me!

The man in front of me had a red face, he was stuttering while shouting.

Seducing you? Why would I do that desu ka?

I am a high-tier Rank 1. But you didn't even used a magic stone at all. So we would know how this match will turn out.

The man continues to stare at my chest for a while now.

You're saying such ridiculous things ne. With such a small gap of difference between us, however you will be buried by my true ability.

Before reaching the semi-finals, I already quite understood this man's ability.

The extreme degree of training he received in some level. At least, no one in my hometown is weaker than him.

Wh-what did you say!?

Will we just be chitchatting here? Hora, the referee is being troubled masu shi, and the audience will soon run out of patience masu yo.

Why? The referee is being careful right? Is this person's house special or something I wonder? But he doesn't seems to be a noble, since he's taking the general examination.

Hey you, if I feel like it, I might go easy on you. Thus not hurting you, in exchange...

He was lustfully glaring with his eyes. People who sometimes comes to my hometown Elucie, looks us Firefoxes and Elves with such eyes. Disgusting. They make me sick.

Besides, in the first place...

Because they might misunderstand it, do tell us masu. I'm strong desu. By "You" to be hurt, I choose not to... And you who disrespected my friend.

I showed a fearless smile, small quantities of mana were discharged. Raising the Rank, the mana was increased if the amount of divine protection was increased. However, it only extremely increases the abilities' foundation. It didn't produce any overwhelming difference in physical ability.

I'm a Golden (highest tier) Firefox, it's impossible to be inferior to a normal high tier Rank 1 at most.

Do you think I will let that pass masu ka?

Hi, what the, hell is this?

Saa, shall we start? Referee, on your signal

Eh, Ah, Yes

One more advice desu. Once the match begins, please get outside the ring immediately.

Because you might be reduced to ashes kara.

The high tiered Rank 1 was forced by Kuna's strangeness... The fourth placer that should be overwhelmingly superior retreated.

We-well then, the second semi-final match...

Start!

Simultaneously when the match started, I refined my magic. It's been a while since I seriously released my power.

-Souji and Anne's POV-

Amazing.

Seeing Kuna being so serious, it is also the first for me too.

Just when the match started, the whole ring turned into a sea of flames. A red pillar of fire, rises, the top of the growing flame breaks, it fell on the ground swirling, and then again ascended up to the heavens. The ring itself became the boundary of the looping flame. The flame was rotating not letting them escape, she can maintain heat boundary to that extent.

Is that spirit magic?

A Firefox's mana capacity was larger compared to a normal person but to be able to simply continue such magic was too severe. What made it possible was by using Spirit magic.

Amon the atmosphere, holds the attribute of Earth, Fire, Wind and Water, it was overflowing with mana. That man was used by the Spirit magic. Her own manga was luring the gathering mana, she borrowed their power to unleashed this magic. By doing that magic that is beyond the users limit can be unleashed.

No matter how a human struggled, it will be impossible in this area.

Certainly.

But humans can't conveniently use Spirit magic easily. Mana has a taste for mana as a lure. Mana likes the mana humans made in some degree. That's why I can use all the property of the attribute magic. I can use 1 mana, where 1.2 of mana is returned, furthermore when the outer mana was used when casting magic, a loss occurs. If it was a common magician, the cnversion efficiency is approximately 70, using 1 mana originally, only %80 of the Spirit magic can be used.

In addition, the part around the process that gathers mana, activation of the magic slows down and becomes unstable. There are no merits for humans on using Spirit magic. When I'm at my best, almost all conversion lost is brought closed to zero, after all it does not correspond to one's effort.

The Golden Firefox are regarded as monsters when using flames right?

Perhaps there isn't a race in this world that was loved by the flames to a extend similar to them.

There are few suitable territories for a Firefox, wind and water have bad compatibility that destroys mana. On the other hand, territories with fire are by far the best. Normally when 1 mana is used 8 mana is gathered.

But in Kuna's case, among the Firefoxes the Golden Firefox is the most prominent, when regarding 1 mana 12 mana gathers. Furthermore her skill is amazing, when constructing a magic there almost zero lost in conversion.

To be honest, I feel jealous. Using a magic that is twelve times the mana that was used is cheating.

Kuna's technique to control it, how did she learned it?

It isn't domain a girl like Kuna can normally reached at lease. Even for players with homunculus bodies, it takes ten years with the best of their abilities to reach that domain. And Kuna's flame magic equation is so refined that it's unusual.

There's no difference compared to a Player-made magic. Kuna said that her chichioya taught her, and then does that mean that her chichioya was the one who made that magic equation? I like to meet him once for a chat.

I think that it's unusual, Including the process to gather mana, moreover taking a battle conduct. A genius.

If a normal person played around with mana they will destroy themselves. But she finished completely controlling it.

The real battle has just started.

At the arena ring that was painted over with red, I think that for a moment Kuna's tail just shined with a goldern color. I blocked off my visual information, I followed the movements of figures inside the ring with mana.

Kuna dashed toward the fourt placer. On the stomach, jaw and temple, three consecutive blows were released from the bling spot.

She quickly retreated after delivering the combo attack. The fourth placer swung his sword in a place without anyone there.

You dirty-

His honest expression leaked out.

Judging from the fourth placer, that field is like hell. There's nowhere to escape because the whole ring was surrounded by flames. While being roasted whole, the divine protection's blue phosphorescence consistenly leaks out.

Out view was smashed by a red shroud, I can't see Kuna's figure anywhere. Even if one's body is healed with divine protection, the heat and lack of air will continue to reduce the physical and spiritual strength.

Damn it, damn it!

My enhanced hearing picked-up the fourth placer's voice. The voice started to break into frustratin, despair, and resignation. The forth placer mana started to circulate.

He's probably aiming to break the boundart of flames. But...

Wha-

Kuna's first taht crept from the blind-spot for the second time breaks the fourth placer's solar plexus, and the magic was interrupted. Normally simply moving with the heat and lack of air is difficult, and because Kuna mercilessly hit him, he can't prepare for the magic that will break the boundary of flames.

Even if he was a high-tier Rank 1, they were still both Rank 1. In a place where the flame continuously reduce the defense, if a fist that is enhanced by mana hits an unprotected vital spot then pain will run through. ...While his entire body is being roasted, at the time when he was almost finished his vitals received a blow and felt pain, it was a big advantage.

Kuna's so beautiful.

Kuna didn't make a sound at all. It's the proof that there's no wasted movement. With such flexible movement, just like swimming in the flames and I think that it's beautiful. Being her opponent she knows the difference between their physical ability and defensive strength, in this battle other than the attacks from the blind-spots, she didn't place her body in the opponent's sword range.

Despite that, she drove her fist to the opponent's vital spot the moment he lost concentration, certainly the damage accumulated.

This is the cool-headed beast's hunt. The interval between the sound and the fist launched becomes shorter. The fourth placer is weakened. As he weakens, his openings increase and also the chances for Kuna to hit him also increase.

Since a while ago, a sound similar to a meat being slapped against the chopping board can be intermittently heard. The venue was dead silent. Only the sound of meat being beaten down on the ring plaited red by the flames can be heard. Even when in the same Rank, he lost consciousness long ago and was taken easily. Five minutes later the boundary of flames has frayed. Kuna remotely controlled the flames to rise up in the heavens like a dragon.

Now then, did you all enjoyed my flame dance?

Kuna without even sweating at all, smiled with the same clothes when the match started.

On the other hand, the fourth placer was in a terrible state. The lightweight leather armor was burned until it was burned to dregs and sticks to the body. Blue particles rise to his whole body to cure the burns, on the cheeks, temple, solar plexus, and the crotch, the blue particles have risen from the vital parts more intensely. ....Kuna was preponderant with her hits.

As far as I can see, the remaining divine protection is already under 30%, the body ability and the defensive powers are catastrophic.

Have you heard before the match started, what kind of intention I had when I took off my clothes?

Kuna was smiling while stepping, she moved forward by one step.

This is the only clothes that can endure my flames. It was weaved with Kaa-sama's hair. I only have these clothes. The other gets burns and is wasted so I took them off. Hi...hiiii, I won't forgive you!

That's disappointing. Forgive me... no that's not it... If you had surrendered then it would have ended.

Kuna disappointedly sidestepped and her figure vanished. No, it's a speed dash to the extent that it made illusions. And then, her foot was lightly swung.....

Ei!

With a cute voice, she hit the guy in his crotch.

Ou, ohou... Oufu

The fourth placer was down. In an instant blue particles appeared, the divine protection immediately became zero and the particles disappear, the pain wasn't eased and the damages were also aren't healed.

He fainted in agony that resembles a twitching caterpillar. Perhaps she was going easy from the beginning. If Kuna was really serious then that guy's balls will be completely crushed.

Kuna then looked at where me and Anne are, she expressed a smile on her face and made a V sign.

When Anne waves her hand with me, she sticks her chest out and snorts roughly.

Wi-winner is Kuna!

I was a totally unexpected result. This is today's second "Giant Killing". The venue breaks into excitement more than at my match, Kuna goes down the arena while being cheered.

.....But, at that time we didn't even noticed. The trance expression of the fourth placer while looking at Kuna, and having his propensity being twisted by this match.

Ku-Kuna

There was no one who was there to care for the voice that was full of heat in mind.
